Greetings Members of the Clallam County LTAC,

We are here today representing the West End Youth and Community Club and encourage you to read our application which requests support for a new position in Clallam Bay and Sekiu to develop strategies for Sustainable Tourism, and provide marketing support for local businesses and nonprofits; and for operation and maintenance of the only event center in Clallam Bay and Sekiu—the Sekiu Community Center, which has been used for music performances, art shows, and tourist-events such as Salmon for Soldiers. This Center will also initially house the new position which is devoted to Sustainable Tourism.

The new position is Clallam Bay/Sekiu Director of Sustainable Tourism and is defined to fill a need for coordinating community activities in Clallam Bay and Sekiu related to tourism, planning future events, and coordinating marketing /advertising for businesses and tourist opportunities.

Among duties of a Director of Sustainable Tourism, defined on pages 2-3 of the grant application, are:

- a) Increasing visibility of tourism offerings of Clallam Bay and Sekiu by coordinating development of informational material and marketing of tourism activities with local businesses, nonprofits (e.g., Clallam Bay Slip Point Lighthouse Keepers, Clallam Bay-Sekiu Fun Days, Sunset West Co-op, Clallam Bay Visitors Center, Clallam Bay/Sekiu Lion's Club, Friends of Hoko River State Park), and the Clallam Bay/Sekiu Community Advisory Committee.
- b) Helping to support tourism promotion by partnering with Olympic Peninsula Visitors Bureau, Chambers of Commerce, State Tourism associations, International Tourism associations, Olympic National Park, Clallam County Parks, and WA State Parks, and local nonprofits supporting tourism.
- c) Providing a point of contact and connection for local businesses and organizations to share concerns, needs, and goals related to sustainable tourism;
- d) Facilitating communication, and coordinating within Clallam Bay and Sekiu among nonprofits and businesses regarding tourist-related concerns and opportunities;

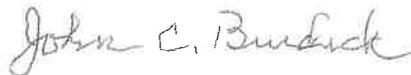

- e) Facilitating planning for new events and workshops, primarily in off-season and shoulder seasons;
- f) Designing and conducting community meetings/questionnaires in conjunction with Clallam Bay/Seki Community Advisory Committee, local nonprofits (e.g., Clallam Bay Slip Point Lighthouse Keepers, Clallam Bay/Seki Lions Club, Sunsets West Co-op, Friends of the Clallam Bay Library, Clallam Bay Visitors Center, Friends of Hoko River State Park, Clallam Bay-Seki Fun Days etc.), and other organizations (e.g., Clallam County Parks) to identify a unified vision of sustainable tourism in Clallam Bay and Seki; and identify community assets and expanded services and resources needed which will benefit tourism and the local community. Initial meeting preparation will include review of needs/assets assessment, goals, visions, and projects related to tourism identified for Clallam Bay/Seki during the period from 2007 -2009 through community involvement; and
- g) Supporting grant writing for other organizations/businesses through grant review.

These duties fall within RCW 67.28.080 (i.e., developing strategies to expand tourism; advertising, publicizing, or otherwise distributing information for the purpose of attracting and welcoming visitors). The event center (Seki Community Center) falls under RCW 67.28.1816 which defines the "tourism-related facility" as one which is "b) used to support tourism, performing arts, or to accommodate tourist activities". Both statutes are referenced in grant materials on p.6 to define appropriate uses of LTAC funds.

We are here to encourage you to read the application, to recognize that it meets all of the grant requirements for appropriate uses of LTAC funds, that we believe we should be considered for funding on this basis, and request your reconsideration of our application.

Thank you for your time and consideration of this matter.

Respectfully yours,

John Burdick, President

DRAFT

Post Reporting

Reporting Requirements enacted by the Washington State Legislature in 2013 (RCW 67.28.1816) requires the County to file an annual report to the State of Washington Joint Legislative Audit and Review Committee regarding the use of funds for the year including a requirements to quantify how many individuals were attracted from more than fifty miles away and spent the night in paid lodging, and the reporting of expenditures and activities shall meet those requirements. It is required that all recipients submit a post-event activity report that provides information to the Clallam County Administrator as specified by the contract.

GUIDELINES

Clallam County lodging tax paid by visitors is a consumer tax on lodging charges for periods of less than 30 consecutive days for hotels, motels, rooming houses, private campgrounds, RV parks, and similar facilities within the unincorporated areas of Clallam County. CCC 5.13.020 Special fund.

Eligibility

Clallam County's Lodging Tax Fund will be the primary source of County funding for activities, operations, and expenditures designed to increase tourism in the unincorporated areas. Applications may be submitted by any non-profit entity, any public entity, or any group of eligible organizations (RCW 67.28).

Appropriate Uses

The guiding principle for the use of lodging taxes is that they must be used for activities, operations and expenditures designed to increase tourism. Specifically, lodging taxes can be used for:

- Tourism marketing;
- Marketing and operations of special events and festivals designed to attract visitors;
- Operations and capital expenditures of tourism-related facilities owned or operated by a municipality or a public facilities district; or
- Operations of tourism-related facilities owned/operated by nonprofit organizations (RCW 67.28.1816)

A tourism-related facility is a real or tangible personal property with a usable life of three or more years, or constructed with volunteer labor that is (a) owned by a public entity, nonprofit organization (including a non-profit business organization, destination marketing organization, main street organization, lodging association, or chamber of commerce) and (b) used to support tourism, performing arts, or to accommodate tourist activities (RCW 67.28.080) The guiding principle is that the facilities should be used by tourists.

Tourism Marketing and Operations includes activities defined as "tourism promotion" in state law (RCW 67.28.080)

- Advertising, publicizing, or otherwise distributing information for the purpose of attracting and welcoming visitors;
- Developing strategies to expand tourism;
- Operating tourism promotion agencies; and
- Funding the marketing or operation of special events and festivals designed to attract visitors.

HIGH PRIORITY may be given to tourism activities that:

- Have a demonstrated potential or high potential from the Committee's perspective to result in overnight stays by visitors in lodging establishments for projected nonpeak periods within unincorporated Clallam County.
- Promote Clallam County events, activities, and places in the unincorporated area of Clallam County to potential visitors from outside the County.
- Have demonstrated a high potential from the Committee's perspective to result in documented economic benefit to Clallam County.
- Have demonstrated history of success or are proposed by a group with a demonstrated history or high potential of success with similar activities.
- Minimize duplication of services where appropriate and encourage cooperative marketing and/or includes an element of cooperation or partnership.
- Provide, maintain, operate, or enhance County-owned tourism facilities or infrastructure.

Lodging Tax Advisory Committee Considerations

In developing its recommendations, the Committee considers:

- The estimated amount of Lodging Tax Fund available for the coming year as provided by the County's Finance Director.
- Completeness of the proposal information.
- % of the proposal request to the event/facility promotions budget and overall revenues.
- % of increase over prior year Clallam County Lodging Tax funded proposals, if any.
- Projected economic impact within the unincorporated area of Clallam County, in particular projected overnight stays in this area lodging establishments.
- The applicant's financial stability.
