SENIOR CITIZEN AND PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES EXEMPTION APPLICANT DISCLAIMER

Applying for the Senior Citizen and People with Disabilities Exemption Program means you understand the following:

1. It is your responsibility to update the Clallam County Assessor's Office regarding any changes to your income (even small increases can affect your eligibility), any changes in your marital status and/or living situation, any changes to your residency, and any changes that may affect your eligibility for this program.
2. If we do not update your income annually, you will receive a letter of audit from us every few years.
3. If, during a review of your status, anything is found that affects your exemption - you will be responsible for any back taxes that may have accrued.
