

ARE YOU A HAM?

The Amateur Radio Emergency Service is an organization of HAM volunteers that provides back-up emergency communications to Clallam County.

JOIN US!

During any major disaster - wildfire, earthquake, severe storm, power outage - regular communications can be disrupted and overwhelmed.

JOIN ARES!

We are trained to report dangerous weather and damage, support First Responders, provide links to hospitals and shelters, and keep our community informed.

JOIN US TODAY!

Contact ARES through Clallam County
Emergency Management: 360-565-2691