Explanatory Statement

The Law as it Presently Exists

Until 1998, Washington law allowed the use of affirmative action in public education, public contracting, and public employment, subject to constitutional limits on the use of affirmative action. In 1998, Washington voters approved Initiative 200 (I-200). I-200 prohibits state and local government from making decisions on the basis of race, sex, color, ethnicity, or national origin in public employment, public education, and public contracting.

I-200 provides several exceptions involving disparate treatment based on sex. It does not apply to lawful classifications that are based on sex and are necessary for sexual privacy; medical or psychological treatment; undercover law enforcement; or film, video, audio, or theatrical casting. I-200 also allows separate athletic teams for each sex.

I-200 permits state and local governments to participate in federal programs that require actions that I-200 would otherwise prohibit. This allows state and local agencies to receive federal funds when federal law requires certain measures based on race, sex, or other categories.

The Effect of the Proposed Measure if Approved

The public vote on Referendum 88 will decide whether Initiative 1000 (I-1000) becomes law.

I-1000 would allow the state to remedy documented discrimination or underrepresentation of disadvantaged groups in public education, employment, and contracting. Whether a group is disadvantaged would be determined by a valid disparity study or proven in court.

I-1000 would also allow affirmative action to increase diversity in public education, public employment, and public contracting. I-1000 would define affirmative action as a policy that considers an individual's race, sex, ethnicity, national origin, age, sensory, mental or physical disability, or veteran or military status, when selecting qualified persons for opportunities in public education, public employment, and public contracting. Affirmative action would include, for example, recruitment, hiring, training, promotion, outreach, setting and achieving goals and timetables, and other measures to increase diversity. Affirmative action could not be used to impose quotas. In addition, race, sex, color, ethnicity, national origin, age, sexual orientation, sensory, mental or physical disability, and veteran or military status could not be used as the sole qualifying factor to select a less qualified person over a more qualified person.

I-1000 would not prohibit state and local government from taking actions needed to establish or maintain eligibility for federal programs. But before such actions could be taken, certain state government officials would have to determine that it was necessary to avoid a material loss of federal funds.

I-1000 would also establish a Governor's commission on diversity, equity, and inclusion. The commission would monitor and enforce agency compliance with I-1000. The commission could propose or oppose legislation. It would publish annual reports on the progress of agencies in achieving diversity, equity, and inclusion in public education, public employment, and public contracting. Various elected and appointed officials would serve on the commission.

FISCAL IMPACT SUMMARY

Initiative 1000 was enacted in the 2019 legislative session, but has not gone into effect because the voters submitted petitions to refer the measure to the November 2019 general election ballot. If the voters approve the referendum, Initiative 1000 would go into effect and the total costs to the state in the 2019–21 biennium and ongoing would be $1.5 million. There are no known state or local revenue impacts that would result from the passage of this measure.

SUMMARY

Referendum 88 would place Initiative 1000 onto the ballot for approval or rejection by the voters.

Initiative 1000 permits the state to adopt policies that allow an individual's race, sex, ethnicity, national origin, age, the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability, and honorably discharged veteran or military status to be factors considered in the selection of qualified applicants for opportunities in public education, public employment, and public contracting. Initiative 1000 does not allow an individual's race, color, sex, ethnicity, national origin, age, sexual orientation, the presence of any sensory, mental or physical disability, and honorably discharged veteran or military status to be used as the sole qualifying factor to select a lesser qualified candidate over a more qualified candidate for a public education, public employment or public contracting opportunity.

Initiative 1000 creates the Governor's Commission on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (Commission). The Commission is responsible for planning, directing, monitoring and enforcing each state agency's compliance with the initiative. The Commission is required to publish an annual report on the progress of all state agencies in achieving diversity, equity and inclusion in public education, public employment, and public contracting. The Governor appoints some commission members, who serve four-year terms. Other members are the directors or chairs of 25 state agencies, councils, or boards. The Commission also includes two state senators, one from each of the two largest caucuses, appointed by the president of the Senate, and two members of the state House of Representatives, appointed by the speaker of the House of Representatives. Legislative members serve two-year terms.

GENERAL ASSUMPTIONS

- The effective date of the referendum if approved is December 5, 2019.
- Estimates use the state's fiscal year of July 1 through June 30. Fiscal year 2020 is July 1, 2019, to June 30, 2021.
- The Governor's Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion will hold six meetings in Olympia, three meetings in Seattle, and three meetings in Eastern Washington.

REVENUE

The referendum has no known state or local revenue impact.

EXPENDITURES

A vote to approve the referendum would result in costs for state government for the creation of the Governor's Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion and for implementation of the policies allowed under Initiative 1000.

Costs related to creating an office and conducting commission activities are estimated to be $582,000 for the 2019–21 biennium and ongoing. These include salaries and benefits for a full-time policy analyst and a part-time administrative assistant to staff the commission to make appointment recommendations to the Governor, plan monthly commission meetings and pay for meeting rental charges, legal services, and travel costs for commission staff.

Costs related to commission meetings for agencies required to participate in the commission and expected to pay their own travel costs are approximately $3,000 per agency, when counting only the travel costs, and up to $38,000 per agency when the cost of staff is included. This cost would be ongoing.

Costs related to reporting and compliance at state agencies and universities depend upon the level of tracking and reporting each agency now has in place.

For the institutions of higher education, expanding the current non-discrimination categories and protected classes will add program, tracking, and reporting work. For example, the University of Washington Business Diversity and Equity, which has responsibility for the university's equity policy, reports that it will need two additional program coordinators per year at a cost of approximately $483,000 in the 2019–21 biennium. There are likely to be similar, yet-to-be-determined costs at the other state colleges and universities and state agencies related to programming, tracking and reporting each entity's progress on diversity, equity and inclusion goals.

Argument for

Last year, nearly 400,000 voters petitioned lawmakers to support Initiative 1000, restoring fairness and opportunity to Washington's public employment, contracting, and education enrollment policies. Our State Legislature listened, and passed I-1000. With special interests paying to overturn this law, voters must approve I-1000.

I-1000 Ensures a Level Playing Field with No Quotas

I-1000 simply restores rights consistent with 42 other U.S. states, ensuring fairness and opportunity for all people and small businesses. It allows outreach and recruitment to veterans, women, minorities, and others too often left behind in government hiring, contracting, and education. Under I-1000, quotas and preferential treatment are prohibited, and no one who is unqualified will be selected due to preferential treatment.

Improved Opportunity for Veterans and People of All Abilities

I-1000 expands laws allowing consideration for Vietnam era and disabled veterans in government contracting and employment to include all honorably discharged veterans and military personnel, honoring the sacrifice of those delaying entry into the workforce—or returning injured or disabled.

Build a Healthy Economy, Expand Small Business Opportunities

I-1000 ensures fairness and opportunities for small businesses competing for public contracts—helping local businesses grow local jobs. And, large employers need a diverse, skilled workforce, which is why Microsoft, Alaska Airlines, Vulcan, Amazon, and many other businesses all support I-1000, joining Labor organizations and civil rights groups like the ACLU and Urban League.

We urge all Washingtonians to approve I-1000 for fairness and equal opportunity.

Rebuttal of argument against

Don't be fooled! I-1000 unifies us and creates opportunity for all! I-1000 prohibits government discrimination because of your age, gender, disability, race or veteran status without using quotas or preferences. It guarantees fairness and accountability. That's why nearly 400,000 Washington voters are standing against fear and division. We're taking action to help veterans, women, seniors, small businesses, and the disabled. Join the broad coalition of business, labor and community by approving I-1000!

Argument against

Referendum 88 Would Divide Us

Let's start where we all agree: There's too much division in our society today. We need solutions that bring us together. But Referendum 88 (also known as Initiative 1000) creates more division by allowing the government to inject race into college admissions and government employment. That's wrong. And it drives us further apart.

R-88 Would Allow Government-Sponsored Discrimination

Referendum 88 allows the government to use different rules for different races in deciding who gets into state colleges and universities, who gets hired for jobs in state, county or city government, and who gets a government contract. By separating people this way, Referendum 88 drives a deeper wedge into our community and actually empowers those who would divide us.

As a community we must not let that happen.

R-88 Would Damage Progress Already Made on Diversity

Referendum 88 would overturn a voter-approved state law that forbids discrimination and preferences based on race and gender. And the law has worked well. Our college campuses are more diverse now than before the current law was enacted.

R-88 Lacks Accountability

Referendum 88 would create a massive government agency to enforce the use of race in government employment, college admissions and public contracting. Referendum 88 would be overseen by an unelected board that would not be accountable to voters. A board with sweeping authority to make decisions on preferences in academic admissions and government hiring. Send the Olympia politicians who support this a message: Reject Referendum 88!

Rebuttal of argument for

Referendum 88 (I-1000) uses quotas and harms Veterans. Since 1895, Washington has guaranteed honorably discharged and disabled veterans a preference in public employment. Referendum 88 eliminates that preference through a hidden loophole in Section 3. Racial quotas are implemented under Sections 8, 9, and 11, with a "disparity" study to count by race, goals to enroll and hire by race, and timetables enforced by bureaucrats. Quotas harm everyone, including our Veterans. Reject Referendum 88.

Initiative Measure No. 976 concerns motor vehicle taxes and fees.

This measure would repeal, reduce, or remove authority to impose certain vehicle taxes and fees; limit annual motor-vehicle-license fees to $30, except voter-approved charges; and base vehicle taxes on Kelley Blue Book value.

Explanatory Statement 14

Arguments For and Against 18

The Secretary of State is not responsible for the content of statements or arguments (WAC 434-381-180).

Explanatory Statement

Written by the Office of the Attorney General

The Law as it Presently Exists

A. Motor Vehicle Registration and License Fees

Owners of motor vehicles pay state and local license fees and excise taxes when they register vehicles and obtain license tabs each year. The total, combined amount depends on the type and weight of the vehicle, as well as where the vehicle is registered.

The base annual license fee ranges from $30 to $93 for most passenger vehicles, such as cars, motorcycles, and light-duty trucks. An additional fee is then added depending on the vehicle's weight. The vehicle weight fee can range from $25 to $65 for most passenger vehicles. Funds from the license and vehicle weight fee are used to pay for a variety of state transportation purposes, including road and highway repairs.

Owners of snowmobiles pay an annual license fee of $50. The snowmobile license fee helps pay for snowmobile facilities and snowmobile safety, enforcement, and education programs throughout the state. Owners of commercial trailers pay $34 for initial registration and $30 for each annual renewal. These license fees also pay for state transportation purposes.

Additional taxes and fees may be added depending on the city and county where the vehicle is registered. These taxes and fees help pay for local transportation improvement projects, passenger-only ferries, and other transportation purposes. Some residents of King, Pierce, and Snohomish County also pay voter-approved, annual motor vehicle excise taxes (MVET) that help pay for mass transit projects run by Sound Transit. The MVET is calculated based on a vehicle valuation and depreciation schedule that is set in state law. The total rate of the current MVET is one and one tenths percent (1.1%) of the value of the vehicle as determined by the statutory formula. Future approved MVET's cannot exceed eight-tenths of one percent (0.8%) of the value of the vehicle.

Finally, other fees may be included in the total amount, such as for county filing and service fees, fees for special license plates, or fees for certain types of vehicles. For example, owners of electric vehicles currently pay a $150 fee that goes toward paying for transportation feasibility studies and other transportation purposes. An additional $75 transportation electrification fee will go into effect for electric vehicles on August 1, 2019. This fee will be used to support green transportation projects.

B. Taxes on Selling, Leasing, or Renting a Motor Vehicle

Each retail sale or lease of a motor vehicle is subject to an additional state excise tax known as the "motor vehicle sales/lease tax." This tax, which is in addition to general sales and use taxes, is set at three-tenths of one percent (0.3%) of the selling price of every motor vehicle in the state. Off-road vehicles, snowmobiles, and other non-highway vehicles are not subject to the tax. Farm tractors and vehicles are also not subject to the tax so long as the vehicles are not used for marijuana production. Funds from the motor vehicle sales/lease tax pay for transportation services in the state.

Regional transit authorities in King, Pierce, and Snohomish counties may also impose additional sales and use tax on car rentals. The rate of the tax may not exceed 2.172 percent (2.172%) of the selling price of the rental. Funds from this tax are used to provide mass transit services run by Sound Transit.

C. Sound Transit Funding

State law authorizes Sound Transit to collect multiple types of taxes from some King, Pierce, and Snohomish County residents to help pay for mass transportation projects. These taxes include the MVET and the additional sales and use tax on rental cars previously described, as well as a local property tax and a local sales and use tax on purchases made within the district. Sound Transit also uses federal grants, transit fares, interest earnings, and other revenue to pay for its transportation projects.

Since 1999, Sound Transit has issued and sold public bonds to finance its transportation projects. Sound Transit uses the revenue from the MVET and other taxes to pay the principal and interest on the bonds. It promised its bondholders that it would continue to collect the taxes until the bonds are retired. In 2006, the Washington Supreme Court held that state law could not change the terms of any existing Sound Transit bond contracts while the bonds are still outstanding. This means that Sound Transit must continue to use the tax rate and valuation formula that were in effect at the time the bond was issued, even if state law later changes the rate or formula, until the bonds are retired, defeased, or refinanced under different contract terms.

The Effect of the Proposed Measure if Approved

This measure would reduce funding for state and local transportation projects by repealing, reducing, or removing state and local authority to impose certain vehicle taxes and fees. The measure would limit annual state and local license fees for motor vehicles weighing 10,000 pounds or less to $30, unless the fee is approved by voters. License fees, such as the motor vehicle weight fee and transportation benefit district fees, would be eliminated. The electric vehicle license fee would be lowered to $30. The transportation electrification fee would remain the same. The license fee for snowmobiles and commercial trailers would be lowered to $30. Other fees, such as service and filing fees, would remain the same. The measure would also eliminate the state motor vehicle sales/lease tax and eliminate authority to impose a local motor vehicle excise tax that supports passenger-only ferries.

Any regional transit authority, such as Sound Transit, that has issued bonds financed by a motor vehicle excise tax would be required to defease, refinance, or retire the bonds early, if the bond contracts allow such action. Once the bonds have been defeased, refinanced, or retired, the authority to impose the MVET and the additional sales and use tax on rental cars would be repealed automatically. If the regional transit authority is not able to completely defease, refinance, or retire the bonds by March 31, 2020, any existing voter-approved MVETs would remain unchanged, and the maximum rate of future voter-approved MVETs would be reduced from 0.8% to 0.2%.

The measure would also require that any future vehicle taxes, including voter-approved MVETs, be determined by using a vehicle's base model Kelley Blue Book value. The base value would not include any applicable federal excise taxes, state and local sales and use taxes, transportation or shipping costs, and preparatory and delivery costs. The measure would require the Department of Licensing to use a vehicle's base model Kelley Blue Book value for any appeal of the valuation of the vehicle.

FISCAL IMPACT SUMMARY

Initiative 976 changes vehicle taxes and fees by lowering motor vehicle and light duty truck weight fees to $30; eliminating the 0.3 percent sales tax on vehicle purchases; lowering electric vehicle and snowmobile fees; modifying and reducing Sound Transit motor vehicle excise tax provisions; and removing authority for transportation benefit districts to impose a vehicle fee. Total revenue loss to the state in the next six years is $1,921,901,238. Total revenue loss to local governments in the next 6 years is $2,317,121,034. The departments of Licensing and Revenue have estimated implementation costs of $2,846,800 in the 2019–21 biennium.

General Assumptions

- Except as otherwise provided, the effective date of the initiative, if approved by voters, is December 5, 2019. Section 10 and 11 take effect on the date that the regional transit authority complies with section 12 of this act. Section 13 takes effect on April 1, 2020, if sections 10 and 11 have not taken effect by March 31, 2020.
- The provisions of the initiative apply prospectively, not retroactively.
- Fiscal estimates use the state's fiscal year of July 1 through June 30. Fiscal year 2020 is July 1, 2019, to June 30, 2020.
- State revenues are based on the June 2019 transportation revenue forecast.
- Local revenues are based on the most recent actual figures and are not forecasted.
- Transportation benefit districts (TBDs) have the authority to collect vehicle fees, and sales and use tax. This initiative repeals only the authority to collect vehicle fees, so TBDs could continue to collect sales and use tax.
- Section 5(1) erroneously states that the electric vehicle fee is $130 total. RCW 46.17.323 includes two fees. $100 in section (1) and $50 in section (4)(a). The current electric vehicle fee is $150 total. Calculations for the impact of the fee reduction are based on the correct fee. Chapter 287, Laws 2019 establishes the transportation electrification fee of $75. I-976 would lower the $100 in section (1) to $30 and eliminate the $50 in section (4)(a). It does not affect the new $75 fee.

REVENUE

State Revenue

The initiative reduces license fees for vehicles under 10,000 lbs. to $30. The additional 0.3 percent sales and use tax on motor vehicle sales is eliminated. The snowmobile license fee is reduced from $50 to $30. Commercial trailer fees are reduced from $34 to $30. The electric vehicle fee in Section 5(1) is reduced from $100 to $30. An additional electric vehicle fee in Section 5(4)(a) of $50 is eliminated.

The Rural Arterial Trust Account funds construction and improvement of county roads and bridges.

The Motor Vehicle Account is the main source of funds for highway construction, maintenance, ferries and support services. A portion of motor fuel tax revenues is distributed to cities and counties for road programs.

The Puget Sound Ferry Operations Account funds ferry operations and maintenance.

The Transportation Improvement Account funds administration of the Transportation Improvement Board and grants for local government transportation projects that address congestion.

The Multimodal Transportation Account funds all modes of transportation projects, including public transportation, rail and bicycle/pedestrian projects.

The Transportation 2003 Account funds debt service on bonds and Washington State Department of Transportation operating and capital highway programs.

Local Revenue

This initiative repeals local authority to impose a TBD vehicle fee. TBD vehicle fees are used by 62 municipalities across the state to fund local improvements such as road repair and maintenance, transit systems and sidewalks. In fiscal year 2018, TBDs using a vehicle fee across the state collected $58,186,839. This revenue would be eliminated beginning on the effective date of this initiative.

Sections 10 and 11 would reduce the motor vehicle excise tax (MVET) that funds the Central Puget Sound Regional Transit Authority (RTA) commonly known as Sound Transit. MVET rates are reduced from .8% to .2% and will be calculated based on Kelley Blue Book vehicle value instead of the manufacturer's suggested retail price.

This tax rate would be repealed when the RTA is able to refund, refinance or defease, or terminate, outstanding bonds that have been issued against this tax. It is unknown if this is possible. If the bonds are not able to be defeased, the MVET will remain unchanged to pay off the bonds previously issued that are pledged to the revenue source. If the bonds are able to be defeased, Sound Transit's revenue would be reduced by $328,000,000 per fiscal year based on 2018 revenue. For new bonds issued, the MVET will decrease from .8% to .2%.

This initiative repeals local authority to impose a passenger-only ferry tax. Currently there are no passenger-only ferry districts using the MVET authority to fund their ferries, although they would no longer have the option.

Tax/Fee	Fiscal year 2018 revenue impact
TBD Fee	($58,186,839)
RTA MVET	($328,000,000)

EXPENDITURES

State Government Expenditures

Temporary higher administrative costs at Department of Licensing and Department of Revenue

The Department of Licensing (DOL) would have temporary, higher administrative and computer costs to implement this initiative. If Sound Transit is able to defease or refinance its bonds and the MVET is reduced, DOL will issue refunds to customers who register their vehicles prior to their annual vehicle registration date. The DOL will also have costs for computer updates, temporary staffing costs for additional calls to their call center, and accounting services to issue refunds. Biennial administrative costs for the agency are $2,740,900 in the 2019–21 biennium.

The Department of Revenue (DOR) will experience temporary, higher administrative costs to implement this initiative. The DOR will have costs for computer updates and administrative costs for rule making, accounting services to issue refunds and developing new forms. Biennial costs for the agency are $105,900 for computer updates and administrative items in the 2019–21 biennium.

Argument for $30 tabs now!

Taxpayers are getting ripped off, politicians know it, refuse to fix it

Taxing a $10,000 vehicle like it's $25,000 is fraud. I-976 repeals the dishonest valuation schedule politicians are currently using to artificially inflate your taxes. No more price gouging!

I-976 limits license tabs to a flat, fair, and reasonable $30 per year for your car, truck, motorcycle, motorhome, and other vehicles. We're paying sales taxes when we buy, gas taxes when we use, we shouldn't have to pay dishonest triple taxes just to own it. Working class folks, not just rich people, should be able to afford a newer vehicle.

If politicians had any compassion for the average taxpayer, I-976 wouldn't be necessary

Washington is one of the highest taxed states in the nation. Dishonest vehicle taxes, skyrocketing property taxes, crushing sales taxes, massive gas taxes, obnoxious tolls, and costly fees on everything. Despite record revenues and $3.5 billion tax surplus, Olympia imposed 11 new taxes costing $27 billion. It's insane. Now they're demanding income taxes, carbon taxes, pay-per-mile taxes. Enough!

If we can't get tax relief when there's a huge $3.5 billion tax surplus...

...when can we? Besides, all the money taxpayers save will get pumped right back into our state's economy. Opponents' threats, lies, and scare tactics are absurd – I-976 only affects a tiny fraction of government spending.

Stop getting ripped off – your vote for I-976 tells politicians you're taxed out

Politicians will never limit taxes – here's our only chance. Vote "Yes."

Rebuttal of argument against

Triple taxing vehicles is indefensible. Taxing a $10,000 vehicle like it's $25,000 is fraud. Taxpayers are getting ripped off – that's the issue. Personally attacking Tim Eyman? Distraction. (the truth: "Eyman risks $500K of his own money to fund car tab initiative"). The threats, lies, and scare tactics about I-976 are silly: massive $3.5 billion tax surplus and record revenues can easily backfill affected programs. I-976 forces politicians to reexamine, prioritize. Reject dishonest taxes. Vote "Yes."

Argument against

Tim Eyman's latest misguided, deceptive initiative would irresponsibly slash state and local transportation funding by more than $4.2 billion over the next six years, undermining our ability to address critical safety and traffic problems. Vote no on 976!

976 Threatens Transportation Safety

Washington has over 160 bridges and overpasses in "poor" condition. 976 jeopardizes public safety, delaying projects to fix dilapidated bridges, overpasses, and tunnels that do not meet earthquake safety standards. The Washington State Troopers Association says, "We oppose this dangerous measure because it would stop thousands of needed road safety repair projects across the state, putting driver and pedestrian safety at greater risk."

976 Will Harm Your Local Community

This measure eliminates important local transportation funding in 62 cities throughout Washington. As a result, cities from Seattle to Spokane, from Anacortes to Zillah, would lose nearly $60 million a year in funding needed for bus service, to repair potholes, upgrade safety, provide transit to seniors and people with disabilities, and reduce congestion.

976 Will Devastate Public Transit

Public transit connects people to jobs, education, health care, and each other. Many in our communities rely on public transportation as their primary way to get around. This measure would gut voter-approved light rail expansion and eliminate hundreds of thousands of bus trips each year for commuters, people with disabilities, teenage and elderly riders.

Public safety and transportation experts, business, labor and environmental groups all oppose Eyman's latest flawed and deceptive money-making scheme. Vote no on 976!

Rebuttal of argument for

Eyman's 976 might sound good, but in reality it slashes transit and transportation funding by billions, harming our ability to maintain and improve our roads, bridges, ferries, buses and light rail. And 976 isn't fair. It will give huge tax breaks to owners of brand-new luxury cars, and almost nothing to someone who drives a 10-year-old Corolla – while leaving all of us stuck in traffic. Vote no on 976!

Second Substitute House Bill 1087 (2SHB 1087)

Cash receipt assumptions would be based on variables for which the data is unavailable to the state. Variables include: the number of self-employed persons who will elect coverage; the number of individuals exempted from Unemployment Insurance who are not exempted from the premium; and the number of individuals who have long-term care insurance and may be exempted from the premium. Since cash receipts cannot be determined, the ten year analysis is "indeterminate."

Explanatory Statement

Written by the Office of the Attorney General

The Constitutional Provision as it Presently Exists

Article II, section 42 of the Washington State Constitution permits the legislature to adopt legislation governing certain immediate actions in times of emergency resulting from enemy attack. The authorized legislation includes measures to ensure continuity of state and local governmental operations and appointing public officers to ensure public duties continue to be carried out.

The Effect of the Proposed Amendment if Approved

This measure would allow the legislature to adopt legislation governing continuity of state and local operations not just in case of "enemy attack," but also in the event of "catastrophic incidents."

Why the 2020 Census matters

Every 10 years, as required by the United States Constitution, the U.S. Census Bureau takes a complete count of the country's population. Every person living in the U.S. is expected to participate. The Census Bureau collects data for statistical purposes only and is required by law to protect your individual identity.

Having accurate, updated census information is vitally important. The information is used by Congress to distribute more than $880 billion in federal health, education, and infrastructure funds to states, counties, and cities based on population. Census information is also used by Washington's bipartisan redistricting commission to draw new, equally-populated legislative and congressional districts that reflect the population growth and shifts over the past decade.

The Census Bureau will begin collecting information in March 2020 and you can respond online, by mail, by phone, or with an in-person interview. You'll be asked to complete a questionnaire with a few basic facts about the people in your household. It's easy and confidential. Remember, everyone counts — so when you receive the official questionnaire, complete it for each person in your household.

Argument for

Our State Is Not Prepared for a Catastrophic Event

Following a catastrophic incident, it is critical for government to continue to function. The Washington State Constitution sets forth how governments will operate in the aftermath of an "enemy attack" but not in the case of other types of catastrophic incidents that may occur. The intent of this constitutional amendment is to ensure that state and local governments can properly function after any type of major disruption.

Voting Yes Is One Critical Step to Get Ready for a Disaster

This constitutional amendment allows for governments to continue operations after a "catastrophic incident." A catastrophic incident is defined to include natural disasters, terrorism attacks, and other events that result in extraordinary levels of mass casualties, damage or disruption severely affecting the population, infrastructure, environment, economy or government functions.

We Never Know When a Disaster Will Strike, We Must Prepare Now

This amendment is essential for us to prepare for incidents such as the inevitable Cascadia earthquake, catastrophic wildfires or a catastrophic pandemic. The reality is that these events will occur at some point in the future, bringing about such damage and disruption severe enough to interfere with government operations. State and local governments need to be better prepared to continue to operate after these catastrophic events. This would allow us to take action to plan for those important steps now.

Vote Yes on SJR 8200

Rebuttal of argument against

This measure lives up to the existing framework for protecting critical functions of state and local governments, enshrined in our state constitution nearly 60 years ago. The definition of "catastrophic incident" is clear and military and other federal agencies use it too. By voting yes, you are allowing government to continue after "extraordinary levels of mass casualties, damage, or disruption severely affecting the population, infrastructure, environment, economy, national morale, and/or government functions."

Argument against

Weakens Constitutional Protections for Citizens and Grants More Power to Government

This measure changes the constitution of our state to allow the legislature to bypass current constitutional and statutory provisions over the state legislature and how it operates. Current provisions allow this exemption in the event of enemy attack. The changes being made with this proposal would allow this exemption in the case of "catastrophic incident".

Criteria Not Defined

This measure does not adequately define what constitutes a "catastrophic incident" nor does it define how widespread such an incident must be in order to trigger this provision. You would have to trust government to make these decisions with or without your input. We should demand a better proposal with clear definitions.

Legislative Dictates

This would grant Legislative leaders from distant areas of the state free reign to change the location of the Capitol, appoint legislators and local government officials to represent you, and pass bills as they see fit with no legislative process requirements, leaving you with no recourse to stop anything they do nor how they do it.

May Hurt You When You Need Help the Most

Passage of this measure will allow government to decide who will make the laws on your behalf and potentially concentrate power in fewer individuals further from you and your interests; and they will be able to do it at a time when you need the constitutional protections and assistance the most.

Rebuttal of argument for

While it is important to prepare for disasters, the legislature needs to provide more specificity on how it would use this new authority before voters approve this authority. How large an area much be affected and what actions they would take should be better spelled out prior to voters extending any additional authority. Don't wait for disaster to strike to find out their intent – insist they tell you before you change the constitution.

Statement

It is an honor and a privilege to serve as Clallam County's first female superior court judge. It is a responsibility that I take very seriously.

As your judge, I will vigorously protect our system of open courts and judicial independence. My continuing goal and commitment to the citizens of Clallam County is to make sure legal matters are handled effeciently, competently and according to law. I believe in treating everyone who appears in front of me with courtesy and respect. Those who have committed crimes will be treated fairly but will be held accountable.

My hope is that people who have appeared in front of me feel they were heard, and their issue understood - even if the ultimate decision did not go their way.

Statement

My wife and I decided to return to Port Angeles after finishing our university educations. We have made this our home for the last twenty-five years. This is where we chose to raise our family, and care deeply about the citizens of Clallam County.

It has been an honor to serve as a full-time judicial officer for the last eleven years. This experience has taught me the critical role the court plays in maintaining what Clallam County has to offer. I will continue to work hard to meet the challenges that our communities face as a result of drug use and mental health concerns.

My judicial philosophy is simple. A judge should be thoughtful and teachable. A judge should make decisions that are both individualized and consistent. A judge should be decisive in a way that is patient and kind and respectful. A judge should be constantly learning and working to improve. A judge should always seek to make the right decision even if it may not be popular. A judge should follow the law.

I am a better judge today than yesterday, and will strive to be a better judge tomorrow than today.

Other Professional Experience

Owned and operated two local businesses 2005-2014; extensive experience in non-profit management, fund development, philanthropic planning and organizational development.

Education

BA in Politics and Government from The University of Puget Sound

Community Service

Founder and President, Olympic Peninsula Healthy Community Coalition; President, Olympic Coast National Marine Sanctuary Foundation; member of the Board of Directors of the Olympic View Community Foundation, Sequim Food Bank, OlyCAP, North Olympic Development Council, Three County Opioid Response Project, and Washington Association of Counties.

Statement

It is an honor to serve as your County Commissioner. In my first term I have established a record of building creative and effective partnerships to solve problems; I have been elected Chair of the Board each of the past three years, which is a sign of my fair-mindedness and an endorsement of my leadership.

My guidance has been a key factor in establishing a robust Public Records Office and making county government more accessible; I am engaged in water resource management and climate change adaptation strategy; I am fighting for the necessary role of local leadership as our health care system integrates - including working with others to ensure that our region is doing all we can to combat the opioid epidemic; and I am searching for creative ways to address our most entrenched problems like homelessness and affordable housing.

The next four years will require focus to maintain a healthy county budget, vision to support a vibrant county economy, new partnerships to find solutions to vexing issues and engaging leadership that brings others on board to help. Thank you for trusting me with your vote so that I may continue to work on your behalf.

Statement

After graduating from Sequim High School, I joined the United States Army where I served a tour in Iraq with the 101st Airborne. When I arrived back in Sequim, I managed to find a job and housing, both of which are far too hard to come by. I know firsthand that government needs to avoid adding to the cost of living for working families and retired folks, and indeed try to lower it. With experience I've gained, I will work closely with my fellow elected County officials to ensure housing is affordable and available. I will work with civic leaders and county staff to remove any barriers to the county being a business friendly environment. I'll also prioritize helping families and younger citizens avoid or heal from drug addiction and mental health issues. My work has shown me the urgency of dealing with these problems. Supporting our courts, juvenile justice, and law enforcement are key priorities for me. I will work to make sure that the county sheriff and drug fighting agencies have a sustainable funding source and not have to depend on grant funding and that the county government operates in an efficient, effective, responsive and transparent manner.

Statement

If elected as your Port Commissioner, I will serve and improve the current Logging, Marine, and Aeronautic industries infrastructure and contribute new ideas towards uses of existing alternative resources for Economic Development for the Citizens of Clallam County, with a vigorous focus for District 3.

We are taxed approximately $30.00 per household and business every year to support the Port and its Economic Development Plans. I want to direct part of those funds back to our area by developing targeted activities and programs to bring prosperity to the communities of the West End.

I am not a career politician, nor do I want to be, but I believe it is essential to serve your community. It is important to have new eyes on old issues.

While serving as Trustee to the Village of Magdalena, New Mexico, I wrote a Water Conservation Plan and acquired Grants for new Sewage Lagoons. I wrote an OSHA Safety Program and Employee Handbook for the Village and helped to implement post 2001 FAA Regulations, all on a shoestring budget. I hope to bring that creativity and resourcefulness to this office. Thank you for your support and I ask for your vote.

Statement

My husband and I have lived, worked, played, and raised our family in Clallam County for 23 years. We are joyfully immersed in our community with service activities as a high priority.

Over the years, our county has experienced numerous changes, challenges, and successes in health care access and affordability. Our Public Hospital District #2 offers quality and safe medical care, service excellence, and passionate advocacy at the local, state, and national level.

As a regular attendee at the Olympic Medical Center Board of Commissioners meetings for nearly two years, I have had the opportunity to observe how the Board and its committees function, educate myself about the current challenges faced by our hospital district, and witness the plentiful awards, accolades, and successes our hospital district has achieved.

I am excited to work with the Board to implement Olympic Medical Center's 2020-2022 Strategic Plan, advocate for the residents of our county, and serve as an approachable and receptive commissioner for both citizens and OMC employees. With your vote, I will provide: servant leadership, quality communication, financial stewardship, and relentless support for mental and physical health and wellness in our community.

Statement

Rural hospitals in the United States have been closing at alarming rates and are struggling to maintain services in the current environment. OMC is a vital institution to our community and its long term financial stability is under constant pressure from cuts to Medicare, Medicaid, and fewer residents on private insurance. I will work with the board and OMC leadership to explore ways to create new revenue streams. I would like the board and OMC to explore options in creating an Emergency Care membership program for Clallam County residents. I will promote policies that insure all patients who qualify for financial assistance apply for it. I will advocate for a seven day grace period for prompt cash payment. I will advocate for the board to organize with other western Washington hospital districts to explore centralizing administrative duties to reduce costs. I will advocate to reduce wage garnishments on patients to no more than 10% of their net take home pay. If elected, I will be a committed public servant fighting to ensure OMC continues to provide quality care to residents of Hospital District 2 for years to come.

Statement

My life experience, as well as my healthcare security experience, has allowed me to see many spectrums of healthcare. OMC is the largest employer and medical facility in Clallam County, and a lot of families depend on the hospital to be at its best. In a hospital, staff members as well as patients could be having the worst day of their life, and I recognize that advocating for mental, physical, and spiritual health of both staff and patients needs to be a priority. Safety and security is also important along with empowering staff with the latest training and equipment to do their job, knowing they have the full support of the administration and the community. I know this county has its struggle on the street as well, with addictions and mental health issues which bring patients to the doors of OMC. I advocate for the public to have options such as intensive outpatient programs, group sessions, and medication assisted treatment programs. This cooperation with other facilities and clinics in Clallam County together would bring great success to the well being of all.

Education

Masters Degree in Nursing Administration from University of Washington in 1984.

Community Service

Statement

My career in healthcare has spanned hospital roles from bedside nursing in critical care to holding a range of hospital leadership roles. I worked in hospitals from large to small and profit to not for profit.

My experience led me to hold strong beliefs about how hospitals best meet the healthcare needs of a community. In my view the most successful hospitals are characterized by: patient centered care, staff and provider engagement, community partnership, commitment to quality and safety, financial stewardship, and independent local control. I believe OMC meets these standards better than most hospitals in Washington State.

After being appointed as Commissioner last year, I have been active in numerous board and hospital committees: Quality Management Oversight, Legislative Advocacy, Ethics Advisory, Audit, Budget and Compliance, and Employee Wellness. I have had a steep learning curve and have thoroughly enjoyed this opportunity to serve.

My commitment to continuing as OMC commissioner is to add an informed voice and energy to the deliberations and decisions needed to ensure the people of Clallam County receive the best healthcare services. Services provided here in our community. I would appreciate your support allowing me to continue serving in this important role.

Statement

Danny Smith has resided in Forks since 1980. He has always been a free spirit person who only looked to the future rather than dwelling on the pass, never believing that there was anything he could not do. Many people told him he could never be a Truck Driver due to his stature but he proved them wrong.

He was taught anything worth doing was worth doing right. To believe in yourself and never forget where home is, that true friends are few and far between, never jeopardize nor fail a true friendship.

Danny believes that every citizen is the owner of that city. The laws, rules and policies must be respected and applied as appropriate to all and in an equal manner, citizens must be informed of any change that the council makes. The Council members are there to serve the citizens and the needs of the city. The council must publish meeting agendas in the Forks Forum prior to the meetings.

Danny believes that it is very important to talk with, listen and be available to as many folks as possible to get a true feeling of the condition of the city.

I believe that the future of our city depends on working together today! My plan is to not only listen to those who speak up and are active in our community, but to seek out and encourage those without a voice. I pledge to reach out to those on the ground; people doing the real work of keeping Port Angeles moving forward. Our first responders and city workers need our support and resources so that we can ensure the strength and safety of our community. We need to address the issue of rising property taxes and we must grow and revitalize our downtown so that year round citizens can enjoy a diverse and prosperous local economy. I'm against frivolous spending- let's make sure our hard earned tax dollars work for us. I support forming coalitions and mentorship programs between business leaders, financial institutions, and Peninsula College to develop skills to grow our city. We need bold solutions to short circuit homelessness and we need to stop supporting ideas that don't work. I won't be silent. Proposition No. 1
AFFORDABLE AND SUPPORTIVE HOUSING - LOCAL SALES AND USE TAX

The City Council of the City of Port Angeles adopted Resolution No. 14-19 concerning a proposition to implement a sales tax of 0.1 percent pursuant to RCW 82.14.530 to be used only for construction of affordable housing, or funding the operations and maintenance of new units of affordable housing and facilities where housing-related programs are provided.

Should this proposition be approved?

Yes

No

Explanatory Statement

Written by William Bloor, City Attorney for Port Angeles

This proposition will increase the sales tax within the City of Port Angeles by 0.10%. The additional revenue from this sales tax increase will be used only for affordable housing and providing housing-related services within the City as provided in RCW 82.14.530. More specifically, the additional sales tax revenue will be used for: constructing affordable housing and facilities providing housing-related services; or funding the operations and maintenance costs of new units of affordable housing and facilities where housing-related programs are provided. Such affordable housing and facilities will be provided to persons whose income is at or below sixty percent of the median income of Clallam county and who are: persons with mental illness; veterans; senior citizens; families with children who are homeless, or at-risk of being homeless; unaccompanied homeless youth or young adults; persons with disabilities; or domestic violence survivors.

Passage of this proposition will make the City eligible to claim additional revenue from the State. The additional revenue is a credit, not an additional tax, that is transferred to the City from the State's portion of sales tax. It is equal to 0.0146% of sales taxes paid within the City.

Argument For

In 2018 the City of Port Angeles completed a Housing Needs Assessment that illustrates our considerable struggle with a shortage of affordable housing. Affordable housing is generally defined as housing expenses being less than 35% of gross household income.

Many of our neighbors are paying upwards of 50% of their income on rent alone. Others are living in places that are not meant to be homes (cars, friends' homes, old RV's, hotels...) or are teetering on the verge of becoming homeless. Many people with jobs are unable to afford appropriate housing in Port Angeles. This has a negative effect on our local economy, leaving them unable to afford a lifestyle that supports vibrant economic growth.

Rapidly increasing rents, decreasing vacancy rates, fixed and limited incomes, and lack of local industries are all driving an increase in housing instability and homelessness in our city. Increasing homelessness cripples the vitality of our downtown, drives up costs for emergency services, and creates environmental and health concerns from unsanctioned encampments.

A one-tenth of one percent increase in the sales tax means that for every $10 anyone spends locally, an extra penny will go to this sales tax. All those pennies add up to over $350,000 dollars a year and will be spent building, operating, and maintaining safe, affordable homes for Port Angeles' most vulnerable residents.

Vote YES! and be part of the solution for solving homelessness and creating an economically vibrant community in Port Angeles.

Argument Against

Introduction: It's not about the money. Most people would be willing to spend an extra penny on a $10 item if they knew it was going to a good cause. And while this is a good cause, potential pitfalls in the Resolution are not addressed.

Workability: Many other cities with large homeless populations have discovered to their detriment that those provided housing do not always take care of their new homes. Numerous incidents have occurred at Serenity House and the other housing units it owns.

Duplication of Services: As to evaluation and treatment centers: This Resolution could too easily duplicate the three alcohol and drug rehab centers already in Port Angeles, one of which has a residential program. The Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT) facility is planned to open in Sequim in 2021, which will treat approximately 250 patients.

Questions: Will "funding the operations and maintenance costs" include hiring a full-time city employee to administer this program? If yes, that person's salary and benefits could easily cost a quarter of the projected income of $320,000 a year. Other questions remain.

With so many in need of housing, how will the individuals and families be prioritized in obtaining affordable housing?

How long will someone or a family be allowed to stay in subsidized housing?

Will counseling or treatment for addictions or other detrimental behaviors be mandatory?

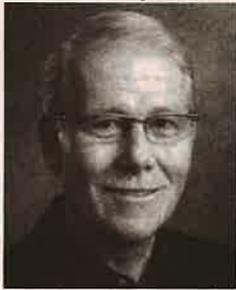

What provisions will be made for enforceable contracts of behavior?

Please vote no on this Resolution.

Statement

I have loved living and working in Sequim for the past 34 years and want to give back to this great community. I am now seeking to be elected to the Sequim City Council seat that I volunteered for and was appointed to last year.

During those 34 years being part of the Sequim business community I have gained much valuable insight into those aspects of city government that both help and hinder small businesses and rental property owners. As a Sequim homeowner, I understand the need for good streets and clean water and safe neighborhoods at a reasonable cost especially to those that live on fixed incomes and are hurt by higher and higher taxes.

Our police need to be fully supported and drug policies enforced with pathways to treatment for those who are serious about restoring themselves into society.

The City of Sequim is not an isolated entity but exists in the context of the larger local community. As your member of the Council I will represent you first as well as recognize the need to promote Sequim as an affirmative contributor to the Greater Sequim Area.

Statement

I have seen Sequim go from a small farming town, to a retirement destination, and is now growing and defining itself again. With growth come issues of: Keeping housing and utilities affordable for blue-collar workers and retirees; maintaining public safety in light of a growing homeless population; proper road and traffic management; keeping a local business-friendly atmosphere; and conducting regular city business in an efficient, effective and transparent manner.

A born and raised local, my grandpa moved to Sequim in the late 1940s. My dad graduated from Sequim High School (class of '63). I look forward to raising my future family and continuing to build my life here.

A fifteen year firefighting and emergency medical service career, owning a residential construction company, and an assortment of life experiences has put me in a spot where I feel competent and confident to take this role. I look forward with humility and anticipation to transitioning from being a concerned citizen attending city council meetings, to being one of the city leaders. I would be honored by your vote. There are many attributes a good city council member should use. It is important to approach all challenges and issues with the greatest degree of common sense and objective thinking. Making decisions that affects the constituency and taxpayer dollars require fiscal understanding and smart teamwork.

Attributes that would not be helpful when approaching challenges and issues include political correctness, inflexibility, and predetermined notions.

I will strive to always use the good attributes.

Statement

The school board is limited to what it can do within state and federal law. There is only so much a board member can do. But, using her years of experience, both as a reporter and as a parent, Arwen Rice would like to help the district navigate through those restrictions and budgetary challenges to provide the best education possible to Port Angeles children and young adults, whether they are college-bound, seeking a trade, military-bound, or haven’t yet decided their goals.

Rice believes teachers should be paid fairly for their dedication, but not at the expense of fiscal responsibility. She will fight for our district’s fair share from Olympia, so that our teachers, support staff and the students all have the resources necessary for success both in the classroom and outside of it. No one should have to decide between fairly paid teachers, teacher layoffs, and funding successful education programs.

She believe our students need opportunities to prepare not just for college but also for everyday life, that the music and arts programs strengthens our students both academically and spiritually, and keeping a strong traditional vocational program is vital to the health of our local economy and our community’s future.

The health and vitality of our community is dependent upon the success of our children. We need to support all families, so they can send students to school ready to learn. Additionally, we need to support our teachers in creating a productive environment that addresses the social emotional needs of our children. I will emphasize strengthening the connections between students, their families, teachers, and our community. I will prioritize transparent and productive interaction between the board, the school administration, and the community.

I am optimistic about the future of our schools. To attain success and continuous improvement, we need board members who are able to find common ground and use sound judgment when making decisions that impact the taxpayers.

As a data and research analyst, I have the expertise to scrutinize the budget process and to make data informed decisions with our children’s best interests in mind. I would be honored to serve on our school board.

Statement

A free and appropriate public education is the backbone of our American democracy. I believe that my 40 year career in education, at the public school and university levels, allow me an enhanced knowledge of curriculum; teaching and learning; and assessment.

The Port Angeles School District provides a high quality education for all students. The PASD Board's strategic plan includes new school construction and expansion and maintenance of older facilities funded through the public's support of future bonds and levies. I believe that all students can learn and should be allowed to progress and succeed at their own pace. The Board will continue to provide services and programs that allow individual students to gain academic success and life skills that will serve them throughout their adult lives. Open and transparent communications with students, staff, families, and the public will help to guide the Board's continued efforts. It is the responsibility of this Board to ensure sound fiscal guidance and competency.

It has been an honor and a privilege to represent this community on the PASD Board of Directors. I look forward to continuing to serve for the next four years.

Statement

I'm a born and raised Port Angeles local. I'm not interested in being a politician. I only want to be an advocate for the teaching and learning process. For me, this means it's an absolute priority to support our students, staff and parents as we all must work together and commit to our common goals.

Being a child of a teacher, I'm aware of the many challenges' educators face daily. As a past student of PASD, I know what an incredible school system is in place. Having two children graduate from this district, I see the caliber of students we produce. Additionally, I have an awareness of student/teacher needs and the obstacles they encounter. Being a community member, I see the endless generosity given to both students and the district and wish for it to continue.

I would like to see a strong board working together, have clear goals and a realistic plan of implementation. My intentions are focused around the students, teachers and community. It would be an honor to serve your children, our educators, and our community in this role. I ask for your support of my candidacy for the Port Angeles School Board.

Statement

My priority will be to focus on student achievement and success in a safe and supportive learning environment for students and staff. A primary goal for the School Board will be to hire and support a new Superintendent. It is essential that the School Board Directors and Superintendent work together in cohesive, productive, and positive ways to achieve district goals.

Sequim School District needs updated safety and security policies and procedures that are upheld districtwide. This includes training and implementing best practice safety protocols. Repairing or replacing outdated and unsafe facilities must be addressed immediately. The School Board and Superintendent team must allocate limited funding wisely, while also finding alternative revenue resources to support changing student needs for the future. To be successful, the School Board Directors must maintain and grow collaborative relationships with families, students, staff, and community partners.

Student programs and achievement are at risk due to funding limitations, aging facilities, and external and internal complexities. I will work to ensure the School Board focus is on minimizing those risks, with student safety and achievement at the forefront of every decision. I will promote community involvement and dedicate my time to bettering the Sequim community.

Statement

I am a 24-year professional real estate broker, entrepreneur, and business man. I understand the realities of working within a budget, and will ensure that the Sequim School District spends our taxpayer money wisely. I will ask questions and work to create the most affordable schools for our community while maintaining high standards of excellence that we all expect. I am an ardent supporter of true budget transparency and believe that teacher input is vital to protect our taxpayers from needless spending.

I promise to address the achievement gap: we do a good job serving students at the top and bottom, but not in the middle. We need cost effective ways to lessen the gap, which could include options for training in high-demand skills and vocations.

I know that a board's job is not to run the organization, but to make sure the organization is well-run. We must ensure that there is excellent leadership in place for our teachers. Good school leaders build a positive school climate and provide support to teachers to help them be the best educators for our students.

LeAnne and her husband have spent 26 years in Clallam Bay because they love the community and the tourist the community attracts. This is why she is here today. Years of experience has taught her that it is our responsibility to not only take care of our own family, but our neighbors, our community, and our cities. She also knows that there is no way to accomplish this all at once. It takes patience and baby steps. Partnering with those that have the same goals in this community will make it much easier to accomplish these goals.

"The Mission of the Cape Flattery School District in partnering with the Cape Flattery communities, is to ensure that each student be given the opportunity to gain the knowledge, skill and self-esteem necessary to become a contributing member of society." Statement

It is easy to wish that someone else would fix "that" problem. It is much more difficult to step in and offer your own hand. I am taking this opportunity to step in, and contribute to my community in a meaningful way.

Maintaining the right tools and vehicles to be effective as a fire district is a critical task. Making sure that dollars are not wasted on inferior products and services, and continuing to be diligent with repairs and maintenance are solid first steps. Proper training in equipment used by staff will also aid in preventing unnecessary damage to vehicles and apparatus. A long term budget for equipment replacement is required to reduce the likelihood of short term fiscal crisis.

I have been working in the forest products industry since 1998. I have learned much about careful budgeting and financial analysis. I also have extensive training and work history with the LEAN method of process improvement. It is from this background that I will be able to critically evaluate the questions and issues facing our fire district. I will bring a fresh perspective that is not tainted by legacy ways of thinking.

Statement

I have been a Clallam County resident for over 50 years. I have been involved in the Fire Service and Emergency Medical Services for over 35 years. I have seen Fire District 2 and the city grow incredibly over those years. I have worked for a fire department that went through similar growth and learned a lot about the management of that growth: both internally within the Department and externally with the community we served. I was on the board that ran a successful funding increase for Clallam Fire District 2 as well as Federal Way Fire Dept (King County Fire District #39). I have also attended Fire Service classes throughout the United States and talked with many leaders about how they managed the growth in their jurisdictions. I have learned how FEMA operates and while I hope we never need that knowledge it is good to understand how FEMA functions. I want to help the residents, businesses, and the staff (both paid and volunteer) of Fire District 2 through our growth and prepare for the future. I want to build on the successes that District 2 has enjoyed.

Statement

The residents of Fire District #3 are fortunate to have a great fire department, but it is one that is understaffed. All too often medical and fire alarms are answered with a delayed response, a delay that can be detrimental when seconds count! As a retired firefighter and paramedic I have become keenly aware of the staffing levels and watched with interest as the district administration worked to solve the problem by successfully being awarded a federal SAFER grant to increase staffing levels. Unfortunately the commissioners denied the grant, leaving the district with inadequate staffing. As alarms and needs continue to mount, the commissioners have chosen to increase local levies, property taxes paid by you, and have in turn discussed adding two firefighters. These positions will be fully locally funded as the federal money the district was awarded has now gone off to another fire department.

I am running for commissioner because I have a long history in the fire service and the knowledge and foresight to make smart decisions both with your tax dollars and improving service. We live in a great area with a great fire department, let's work together to make it even better! Vote Miano!

Community Service

Currently in my twelfth year as Fire Commissioner; Vice President of major Homeowner's Association; President of Sequim Valley Airport Association; member of the Sequim Chamber of Commerce.

Statement

My dedication to the health of our community has been a lifelong pursuit. I am running for a third term to ensure the safety of our citizens and firefighters, while maintaining sound fiscal management. That doesn't just mean cutting costs. By applying our resources in the areas which will improve our efficiency and reliability, we can make the best use of what we have without spending beyond our means.

We all have concerns about government spending and taxation. By statute, our Fire District is faced with only being allowed to operate above 1% of the previous year's budget, while the cost of living index has risen 3-5%. In an effort to overcome this limitation, I have been working hard to utilize cost saving measures such as seeking grants, purchasing a discarded school portable rather than constructing a new office building, and refurbishing our heavily-used aid vehicles instead of purchasing expensive new equipment.

I have dedicated 43 years to the fire service in Northwest Washington as a professional Fire Fighter, EMT, and as your Fire Commissioner. I will continue to apply wise business sense while providing fiscal accountability.

Re-elect your experienced Fire Commissioner who understands our community.

Clallam County Fire Protection District No. 3

Proposition No. 1

EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES PROPERTY TAX LEVY

The Board of Fire Commissioners of Clallam County Fire Protection District No. 3 adopted Resolution 2019-01 concerning a proposition to continue its emergency medical services property tax levy.

This proposition would authorize the board of commissioners to continue to fund emergency medical services for its citizens by imposing a regular property tax levy of up to $.50 per $1,000.00 of assessed valuation for a period of ten consecutive years. The first year of the levy to occur in 2020 for collection in 2021.

Should this proposition be approved?

Yes

No

Explanatory Statement

Written by Brian K. Snure, Attorney for District

In 2009 the voters approved a 10-year Emergency Medical Service "EMS" levy at the rate of $.50 per thousand of assessed valuation. Collections from that levy began in 2011 and will expire at the end of 2020. This measure authorizes the continuation of the EMS levy at a rate not to exceed $0.50 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation for an additional ten years. The first year that this levy will be collected will be in 2021.

Approval of the levy will allow the District to maintain and improve the level of emergency medical services currently provided on a continuing basis including basic, intermediate and advanced life support services by certified emergency medical technicians and paramedics. The revenue from this levy will be used by the District exclusively for emergency medical services.

If the levy is approved, the EMS levy on a $300,000 assessed valuation residence would not exceed $150.00 each year or approximately $12.50 per month for emergency medical services.

Argument For

Every hour of every day, Fire District #3 is on call to respond to your Fire or Medical Emergency. This vote is a request to renew the current Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Levy rate to enable Fire District #3 to continue to provide Emergency Medical Services to you and your 34,000 neighbors.

Voting Yes does not increase your taxes. Every 10 years, voters are required to renew this EMS Levy. This vote is to maintain the current EMS Levy rate for the next 10 years.

Clallam County Fire District #3 is funded primarily by two property tax Levies: the General Levy which represents about 75% of operations funding, and the Emergency Medical Services Levy providing about 21%. Last year, voters approved the General Levy request.

This year, voters are asked to renew the EMS Levy rate of $0.50 per $1,000 of assessed value. (For example, for every $100,000 of your property's assessed taxable value, $50 of your annual property tax, funds Fire District #3's Emergency Medical Services.)

Last year Fire District #3 responded to over 6,000 Emergency Medical Service calls. The EMS Levy is used entirely for Emergency Medical Services, enabling Fire District #3's certified emergency medical technicians and paramedics to provide Advanced Life Support Response (ALS) using some of the most innovative in-field treatment available.

Please vote Yes to continue Fire District #3's Emergency Medical Services - on call for you, every hour of every day - for the next 10 years.

Clallam County Fire Protection District No. 4

Proposition No. 1

PROPERTY TAX LEVY FOR FIRE PROTECTION AND EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES

The Board of Clallam County Fire Protection District No. 4 adopted Resolution No. 7:2019 concerning a proposition to maintain and adequately fund District operations.

This proposition authorizes the District to establish its regular property tax levy at $1.50 per $1,000.00 of assessed valuation to be levied in 2019 and authorizes annual adjustments by the greater of 1% or the annual CPI-W for Seattle-Tacoma-Bellevue as reported in June of the levy year for each of the five succeeding years. The maximum allowable levy in 2024 shall serve as the base for subsequent levy limitations as provided by Chapter 84.55 RCW.

Should this proposition be:

Approved

Rejected

Explanatory Statement

Written by Brian K. Snure, Attorney for District

Clallam County Fire Protection District No. 4 provides emergency fire protection and medical services to its citizens. If approved by the voters, this proposition will authorize the District to establish its regular real property tax levy rate at $1.50 per $1,000 of assessed valuation in 2019 for collection in 2020 and will establish an annual growth rate based on annual CPI-W for Seattle-Tacoma-Bellevue as reported in June of the levy year for each of the five succeeding years not to exceed the statutory levy limit of $1.50. The District's current tax levy rate is approximately $.76 per $1,000 of assessed valuation. The dollar amount levied in 2024 shall serve as the District's tax levy base and in 2024, absent further voter approval, the tax levy will be subject to the statutory one percent limit.

The District's Board of Commissioners has determined that this proposition is necessary to maintain an effective level of services, fire fighter staffing, equipment and facilities in light of rising costs. Approval of this measure will allow the District to maintain the level of fire protection and emergency medical services provided to its citizens.

Argument For

We in Joyce are so fortunate to be living where we do—gorgeous surroundings, breathtaking views, tight-knit community, and The Joyce General Store! However, living remotely means limited access to medical services. Hospital treatment is typically forty to fifty minutes away. Time is critical when someone you love is having a stroke, heart or asthma attack, allergic reaction, or is trapped in a vehicle, in pain.

Clallam County Fire Protection District No. 4 has always been there to provide critical care in times of emergency. Responding to approximately 300 calls a year, 80% of which are medical in nature, District 4 currently offers Advanced Life Support services which include cardiac drugs, pain medicine, critically important medications and advanced airway support.

While District 4 offers all the services of a larger city, call volume has increased, volunteerism is down, and advanced training is more costly. At the same time Medicare/Medicaid reimbursements are reduced. Further, monies received from the sale of county timber, historically covering up to 50% of our operating budget has recently dropped to about 4%. Simply put, CCFPD#4 cannot continue our service level without your assistance.

The time has come for us to request a levy lid lift so Joyce can continue to reap the benefits of all the services provided by our volunteer Firefighters, EMTs and Paramedics. People say, "If you are going to get sick or injured on the Peninsula, make sure you do it in Joyce". Help us, help you. Vote YES.

I hope to continue the goals and objectives as outlined in the duties statement for this position. Those are mainly to protect and serve my community. In the dry season, we are responsible as Fire Commissioners to ensure that there are no uncontrolled burns in any area. With so many tourists visiting our peaceful shores, that's a challenge right there. During the rainy season, it's the home fires that become a problem and I hope to continue to adequately protect the community with smoke alarms and home checks; rapid, adequate response to fires and continued support for our local District Five fire crews.

Together with my family, I have lived and worked in Sequim since 1996. We joined the Sequim Aquatic Recreation Center (SARC) soon after arrival and remained active members until the 2015 closure, whereupon we then joined the YMCA as soon as it opened in the fall of 2016.

I interviewed for the vacant Commissioner position in 2018 (due to the prior commissioner moving out of the area) because I wanted to give back to my community. I was chosen for the position due to my affiliation and familiarity with both organizations, dedication to community fitness, and experience with landlord-tenant issue as a manager for a large commercial building.

My solid understanding of the difficulties that the District has encountered in the past and familiarity with the role of the Parks District as landlord to the YMCA will enable me to continue serving the needs of our growing community.

With your vote, I will continue serving on the Board of Commissioners as the role of the Park District evolves to better serve the needs of its citizens. I am enthusiastic to continuing to serve my constituents as Commissioner and I would appreciate your vote.

Statement
SARC is more than a building with a pool. It has become a landmark where people of all ages gather and benefit. It supports children and adults with swim lessons, fitness activities, post surgery support, and wellness checks. The list of quality services is impressive; from aquatic aerobics, Dance/Yoga classes, racquetball, childcare, to morning coffee connecting with friends. Thus, I strongly support SARC' lease to the YMCA and its ever-growing wellness services.

Since completing the SARC/YMCA agreement and subsequent transferring of management responsibilities, our community significantly benefited. First, the YMCA is a stable, committed tenant for the facilities. Secondly, as a substantial regional employer it provides essential job opportunities. These wages then transfer to local businesses that sustain our economic viability. Lastly, by providing varied recreational and wellness services, Sequim is better poised to attract/retain needed doctors, teachers, nurses and other professionals.

I believe SARC working together with the YMCA and other stakeholders can continue to enhance quality of life. As your SARC council representative I will look to the needs of our community and work to make sure that this wonderful community asset continues to excel at meeting our diverse community needs.

Statement
Over the past eight years as an incumbent Board member of this district, my goal has been to represent you, the public, in securing the best value of services for your taxes. I ask for your support to secure your voice on future financial proposals.

When the YMCA took over the daily management from Sequim Aquatic Recreation Center (SARC), I was deeply disappointed that monetary conveyances between the two were not in the best interest of you, the taxed. For example, the Y's lease is extremely low and their sub-lease of office space to Olympic Medical Center outrageously high. Nevertheless, I'm happy to see improvements by the Y as memberships increase. The Y's programs and classes are many and varied with knowledgeable staff. With increasing usage, a future expansion of the facility may be required.

While I'm not opposed to expansion, as landlord, SARC's Board must represent your interest as taxpayers in any future venture or expansion the YMCA might propose. It's my ardent hope both landlord and tenant bear equitably in any future arrangements.

This was an appointed group assembled to write a regulation protecting both citizen's property rights as well as ensuring environmental and property value protections. Senior election judge.

Statement

The threats to the health and safety of our citizens is greater in 2019 than anytime in this century. We are facing global climate changes which could dramatically alter our local climatic conditions, causing food, power grid, income stability and health crises. Technological implementations, such as 5G, are being implemented without the public health risks, which are known, being adequately addressed. Water, and its availability must be addressed quickly as growth planned for the Olympic Peninsula must be in accordance with the sustainability of our changing water supply. The health of oceans, and the aquatic life that inhabit it, are threatened. These issues do not have a political ideology associated with them.

Clallam County government must become more cost efficient in order that resources be made available for both citizen awareness and the mitigation efforts that may become necessary to protect all citizens. In addition, government and all elected officials must be held accountable for their decisions that result in needless lawsuits, short sighted decision making and the lack of accountability to all citizen needs and desires.

The time for action is now. Five years for another attempt is simply too late.

Lifetime career in book publishing, printing, and binding. Most recently worked for Bethany House Publishers 20 years as lead IT specialist, network admin, help desk, manuscript processing for editorial and prepress. Library of Congress liaison for copyright registrations and cataloging data.

Education

The Cate School, Carpinteria and La Jolla Country Day School, CA. Academy of Language Arts, Tokyo. Some IT classes Normandale College, Bloomington, MN.

Community Service

Election judge/head judge for 25 elections for my former 2100 voter precinct in Minnesota, including registrations. Supporter of public radio/TV, food banks, sharing garden surplus. Snow-blowing for neighborhood elderly/infirm.

Statement

I welcome the opportunity to interview public officials and employees to determine ways to make services more efficient, transparent, accountable to the public, while improving job conditions and morale.

Years of assisting in the elder care of relatives gives me motivation to advocate for seniors, those on fixed incomes, lowest possible utility and broadband rates, availability and cost of healthcare, and Medicare reimbursement. As father of 6 and grandfather of 11, schools, library, and Peninsula College funding are priorities, as well as solutions for working single parents. Due to lack of affordable housing too many single parents, including contractors, need to commute to Sequim to work.

At this time of Charter review, I will be putting myself in the vantage point of 2050, looking back at what we should have fixed in 2020 to proactively protect or improve our present life-supporting environment: soil, streams, aquifers, ocean, air quality, electromagnetic exposure, expansion of solar energy, wildfire mitigation, preparation for sea level rise, and tsunami emergency management.

I look forward to working with our Charter Review Commission to bring government closer to citizens in open forums to create a slate of practical, common-sense ballot measures for your vote.

Community Service

Tax Aide; Stratford Court Condominium Board (including terms as President) in Sequim; Various Short- Term projects

Statement

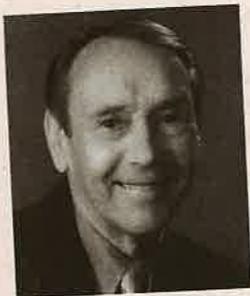

Ted Miller has two primary objectives if he is re-elected to the Charter Review Commission.

First, the 2015 Charter Review Commission nearly completed work on a ballot proposal to complete the conversion of judicial officials from partisan positions to non-partisan ones. Only the prosecuting attorney position remains, with the conversion of sheriff completed some time ago. In 2015 our prosecuting attorney sought a ruling from the Attorney General to establish the legality of making the position non-partisan. This was answered in the affirmative, but was received too late for the Charter Review Commission to vote on it. Now, we no longer can be the first county to make this change, but we can still be the second one to do so. If I am elected, I will advocate placing this on the ballot for the voters to decide.

Second, in 2015 the voters overwhelming decided (with more than 62% approval) to allow voters in each commissioner district to choose their own commissioner. The old system had all three commissioners dominated by the Port Angeles area, leaving the west end and the east end largely out of the decision-making process. If elected, I will fight to retain the voters' decision.

Served as consultant to the Department of Child and Family Services and as an expert witness before Snohomish County Superior Court.

Statement

The voters of Clallam County adopted the current twenty-three page Home Rule Charter in 1976 when it took effect on the second Monday of January, 1977. The Commission proposed amendments to the Charter and the voters approved those amendments eight times between 1981 and 2016. The Review Commission will be reconvened on January 1, 2020 following this coming General Election.

I am well qualified to serve as one of the five members of the Clallam County District 2 Charter Review Commission because I am a graduate in Political Science from UPS, Tacoma familiar with the provisions of Home Rule and County Government and a life time resident of the State of Washington and, have resided in Clallam County since my retirement in 2005.

I consider myself an independent civic minded progressive who is an advocate for Medicare for all, believe Social Security must be protected and expanded, approve of family unification, a woman's right to choose, equal pay for equal work, a living wage, and an end to malnutrition and homelessness. I favor tuition free public education through university and, support environmental protections for clean air, clean water and the prevention and elimination of all harmful conditions in the environment.

Volunteer at Franklin Elementary reading program. Former CASA volunteer and Certified Dispute Resolution Mediator.

Statement

The charter review commission presents an opportunity to hear from the public on how they want their local government to operate.

One interesting issue is that Clallam County has the only elected Director of Community development in the nation. It has been around for many years but I believe this elected role is not yet clearly defined. There are no state rules about how this elected official fits within the general scheme of local government. Historically I have been opposed to DCD being an elected official, but it seems to be here for the foreseeable future. Thus it becomes incumbent upon the charter review commission to clarify the role and relationship with other elected officials. I hope that the charter review process will allow for good discussions on local government issues.

I have spent years helping others build agreements that properly fit the needs and circumstances of those involved, and as a county, we are all involved in what it means to live here. As my experience shows, I am willing to sort out the tough stuff, to work out the details, because we need to be where the rubber meets the road. Statement

I decided to run for the Charter Review Commission, because of my concern for the people of Clallam County and certain issues which are having or could have a significant impact on our quality of life.

When Smart Meters were first introduced into the city of Port Angeles, I was among the core group, who sought to educate the public about the possible harmful effects and consequences, of these meters. Now, county-wide, they are starting to be installed and many residents are not aware of the potential privacy, health and security risks that they present to our families, homes and businesses.

The language used by utility companies that are trying to promote Smart Meters and reassure the public, sounds very reminiscent of what the tobacco industry did for years. There are states that have already banned smart meters. We need to carefully review this issue and consider taking action, at the county level, for the sake of the people of Clallam County.

Some other issues that need to be prioritized include a reliable water reserve, emergency management preparedness, creation of affordable housing and review of the cost-effectiveness of county and PUD projects.

Statement

Charter Review compels me because it helps create, change and maintain outcomes for County structures/processes which are fair, just and serve the common good. Elected members must be accurately and broadly informed and do all the homework. We are a small population in a large geographic county so decisions must be fiscally and politically functional, sensitive to all 3 Districts but not built around self-serving biases.

I am thrilled to be back in Port Angeles (2010) after the joy of growing up here! My work and family life have focused on enriching, experiencing and developing community. We have always participated as a family in making our schools, towns & neighborhoods responsive and resilient. Currently I am working part time in schools around Washington, volunteering, restoring our parents' home and immersed in the most beautiful place on the planet!

I will be deliberate, hardworking and open-minded looking for creative solutions and building respectful consensus wherever possible in Charter Review.

Thank you for voting your conscience!

Statement

Amendments proposed by the Charter Review Commission must be approved by a vote of county citizens. Listening to the public to determine what changes the citizens want, and communicating with the public regarding those changes, are therefore most important roles of a Commissioner. I have a proven record of being the good listener and communicator needed for these roles.

Several incidents have demonstrated ambiguities in the Charter regarding the relationship between, and responsibilities of, county officials. Writing these ambiguities out of the Charter should be a primary goal of the Commission. Other county government issues include financial management, economic development; homelessness and addiction. The Commission should consider whether to address these issues through some restructuring of county departments. For example, an office of financial management has been proposed. Whether that office should be created, and in what form, is a job for the Commission.

I would very much appreciate your vote for me, Nina Richards, for Charter Review Commission.

Community Service

In the past I volunteered for crisis lines, and as a peer counselor for several organizations. I have written web materials, and other documents for a variety of non-profits.

Statement

Since I was a teenager, I have been interested, and involved, in local and state politics. I understand how to read their complex government documents and research on specific issues. I believe we can always improve our local government. I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to review our county charter.

I believe that we have too few commissioners to adequately represent the entire county. The West End is under-represented, with very different needs and issues than the more densely populated communities, which now dominate the agenda. I would support increasing the number of commissioners to five (5).

The Port Angeles City Council should eliminate the "district" positions. Instead, opt for all positions to be elected AT LARGE. This would eliminate the expense, and need for primary elections for council candidates, and it would stop the real problem of unopposed elections.

I support an elected coroner with medical experience, and move the duties of coroner from the District Attorney's office to the County Sheriff's office. There should be established (county, city and port) a public advocate position to investigate and respond to all complaints from the public, facilitate information exchange and to monitor and report on whistleblower, ethics and human rights proceedings.

Statement

Among the issues that need to be addressed by the Charter Review Commission, a resolution/ordinance ensuring reliable year-round potable water supply for Clallam County Communities is of highest priority. We must consider developing off-channel reservoirs along one or more of our major rivers, for storing winter rain runoff for gradual release during the increasingly low-flow days of summer. Determine Cost-Benefit ratios for county and PUD projects. Smart Meters and 5 G merit close review. There are significant cybercrime, privacy, fire, and health concerns, with these technologies.

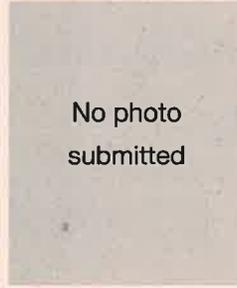

I have lived and/or worked in three of the four sovereign Native American communities, which are part of Clallam County. I find it unconscionable that the tribal communities have no formal representation at the county level. Our Charter needs provisions for tribal liaisons.

There must be county-wide emergency management preparations for the anticipated "Cascadia Rising" event. We need to reinforce roadways, especially high-risk locations for landslides, flooding, and natural disasters. Stricter camping enforcement along county roads should be considered. Parking and camping in non-designated areas, is creating aesthetic, safety and public health concerns.

Thank you for reviewing these suggestions. I welcome your input.

Statement

I have lived in Clallam County for the last 24 years, falling in love with the peninsula when I first came here as a young teenager on a family vacation in 1974. I have always been active in both the civic and professional activities of the community and truly admire the incredible volunteerism of our area. It has also been delightful to teach horticulture as part of the community education program at the college as well as write the local garden column in the PDN was for the last 22 years. I am running for charter review commissioner because I am also a parliamentarian and I wish to use that knowledge not only to aid in the thoughtful deliberations of the 15 member commission ;but to also ensure that everyone who wishes (citizens alike)will be heard and respected. This is my first time running for elected office but I am very excited for the opportunity to help mold our charter and thus I ask you for your vote. Respectfully; Andrew T. May

Statement

I live in Neah Bay, a fishing community, but drive 45 minutes daily, on Highway 112, to get to my worksite. While there are established campgrounds, motels, and other housing options available for our visitors, I frequently see people camping at non-designated, pull-off sites. With no sewage management in these areas, this is having a worsening ecological impact on our water, fish, land, etc.

Requiring stricter camping enforcement along county roads, will benefit the residents and businesses, throughout Clallam County, and should be a high priority for the next Charter Review Commission term.

There are health and privacy concerns, posed by the "Smart Meters" and "TWACS Smart Meters", which are being installed by PUD. Most of our residents are not aware that criminals could scope out work schedules of entire neighborhoods with the click of a mouse.

I am calling upon the Tribal Communities, and all residents of Clallam County, to band together and say "No" to Smart Meters and 5 G. For the sake of our children, grandchildren, and all of our communities, we cannot wait to address this issue. I ask for your support and thank you for your vote.

Statement

Nina is running for Charter Review Board because she believes young people desperately need representation in local government. Supporting young people and especially women in elected positions is important for the progress of democracy, which begins at the most local and basic levels.

In 1976 Clallam County adopted a home charter to give independence and flexibility to the way local government is run. Ours defines the responsibilities of county officials and the organization and procedures that make our communities run smoothly. By continuing to review this charter the county has the ability to adapt to changing times and needs of the people.

Nina would be honored to represent district 3 in reviewing of the home charter. She is grateful to have found a home in Port Angeles, where the unique history, geography, and sense of community has spoken to her on a level that makes her care for it's future. It was Coretta Scott King that said, "The greatness of a community is most accurately measured by the compassionate actions of its members."

Referendum Measure No. 88

AN ACT Relating to diversity, equity, and inclusion; amending RCW 49.60.400 and 43.43.015; adding a new section to chapter 43.06 RCW; and creating new sections.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

PART I
TITLE AND INTENT

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. This act may be known and cited as the Washington state diversity, equity, and inclusion act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The intent of the people in enacting this act is to guarantee every resident of Washington state equal opportunity and access to public education, public employment, and public contracting without discrimination based on their race, sex, color, ethnicity, national origin, age, sexual orientation, the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability, or honorably discharged veteran or military status. This is accomplished by: Restoring affirmative action into state law without the use of quotas or preferential treatment; defining the meaning of preferential treatment and its exceptions; and establishing a governor's commission on diversity, equity, and inclusion.

PART II
PROHIBITION OF DISCRIMINATION AND PREFERENTIAL TREATMENT

Sec. 3. RCW 49.60.400 and 2013 c 242 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state shall not discriminate against, or grant preferential treatment to, any individual or group on the basis of race, sex, color, ethnicity, ~~((or))~~ national origin, age, sexual orientation, the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability, or honorably discharged veteran or military status in the operation of public employment, public education, or public contracting.

(2) This section applies only to action taken after December 3, 1998.

(3) This section does not affect any law or governmental action that does not discriminate against, or grant preferential treatment to, any individual or group on the basis of race, sex, color, ethnicity, ~~((or))~~ national origin, age, sexual orientation, the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability, or honorably discharged veteran or military status.

(4) This section does not affect any otherwise lawful classification that:

(a) Is based on sex and is necessary for sexual privacy or medical or psychological treatment; or

(b) Is necessary for undercover law enforcement or for film, video, audio, or theatrical casting; or

(c) Provides for separate athletic teams for each sex.

(5) This section does not invalidate any court order or consent decree that is in force as of December 3, 1998.

(6) This section does not prohibit action that must be taken to establish or maintain eligibility for any federal program, if the director of the office of financial management, in consultation with the attorney general and the governor's commission on diversity, equity, and inclusion, determines that ineligibility ((would)) will result in a material loss of federal funds to the state.

(7) Nothing in this section prohibits schools established under chapter 28A.715 RCW from:

(a) Implementing a policy of Indian preference in employment; or

(b) Prioritizing the admission of tribal members where capacity of the school's programs or facilities is not as large as demand.

(8) Nothing in this section prohibits the state from remedying discrimination against, or underrepresentation of, disadvantaged groups as documented in a valid disparity study or proven in a court of law.

(9) Nothing in this section prohibits the state from implementing affirmative action laws, regulations, policies, or procedures such as participation goals or outreach efforts that do not utilize quotas and that do not constitute preferential treatment as defined in this section.

(10) Nothing in this section prohibits the state from implementing affirmative action laws, regulations, policies, or procedures which are not in violation of a state or federal statute, final regulation, or court order.

11 For the purposes of this section((:)):

(a) "State" includes, but is not necessarily limited to, the state itself, any city, county, public college or university, community college, school district, special district, or other political subdivision or governmental instrumentality of or within the state;

(b) "State agency" means the same as defined in RCW 42.56.010;

(c) "Affirmative action" means a policy in which an individual's race, sex, ethnicity, national origin, age, the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability, and honorably discharged veteran or military status are factors considered in the selection of qualified women, honorably discharged military veterans, persons in protected age categories, persons with disabilities, and minorities for opportunities in public education, public employment, and public contracting. Affirmative action includes, but shall not be limited to, recruitment, hiring, training, promotion, outreach, setting and achieving goals and timetables, and other measures designed to increase Washington's diversity in public education, public employment, and public contracting; and

(d) "Preferential treatment" means the act of using race, sex, color, ethnicity, national origin, age, sexual orientation, the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability, and honorably discharged veteran or military status as the sole qualifying factor to select a lesser qualified candidate over a more qualified candidate for a public education, public employment, or public contracting opportunity.

~~((9))~~ (12) The remedies available for violations of this section shall be the same, regardless of the injured party's race, sex, color, ethnicity, or national origin, as are otherwise available for violations of Washington antidiscrimination law.

~~((10))~~ (13) This section shall be self-executing. If any part or parts of this section are found to be in conflict with federal law, the United States Constitution, or the Washington state Constitution, the section shall be implemented to the maximum extent that federal law, the United States Constitution, and the Washington state Constitution permit. Any provision held invalid shall be severable from the remaining portions of this section.

Sec. 4. RCW 43.43.015 and 1985 c 365 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter, "affirmative action" means, in addition to and consistent with the definition in section 3 of this act, a policy or procedure by which racial minorities, women, persons in the protected age category, persons with disabilities, Vietnam-era veterans, honorably discharged military veterans, and ~~((disabled))~~ veterans with disabilities are provided with increased employment opportunities. It shall not mean any ~~((set))~~ form of quota system.

Initiative Measure No. 976

BRING BACK OUR $30 CAR TABS

AN ACT Relating to limiting state and local taxes, fees, and other charges relating to vehicles; amending RCW 46.17.350, 46.17.355, 46.17.323, 82.08.020, 82.44.065, 81.104.140, and 81.104.160; adding a new section to chapter 46.17 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 82.44 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 81.112 RCW; creating new sections; repealing RCW 46.17.365, 46.68.415, 82.80.130, 82.80.140, 82.44.035, and 81.104.160; and providing an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

POLICIES AND PURPOSES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Voters have repeatedly approved initiatives limiting vehicle costs, yet politicians keep ignoring the voters' repeated, unambiguous mandate by imposing higher and higher vehicle taxes and fees. It's not fair and it must stop. Without this follow-up ballot measure, vehicle costs will continue to skyrocket until vehicle charges are obscenely expensive, as they were prior to Initiative 695. This measure and each of its provisions limit state and local taxes, fees, and other charges relating to motor vehicles. This measure would limit annual motor vehicle license fees to $30, except voter-approved charges, repeal and remove authority to impose certain vehicle taxes and charges; and base vehicle taxes on Kelley Blue Book rather than the dishonest, inaccurate, and artificially inflated manufacturer's suggested retail price (MSRP). Voters have repeatedly approved initiatives limiting vehicle costs. Politicians must learn to listen to the people.

LIMITING ANNUAL MOTOR-VEHICLE-LICENSE FEES TO $30, EXCEPT VOTER-APPROVED CHARGES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 46.17 RCW to read as follows:

(1) State and local motor vehicle license fees may not exceed $30 per year for motor vehicles, regardless of year, value, make, or model.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "state and local motor vehicle license fees" means the general license tab fees paid annually for licensing motor vehicles, including but not limited to cars, sport utility vehicles, light trucks under RCW 46.17.355, motorcycles, and motor homes, and do not include charges approved by voters after the effective date of this section. This annual fee must be paid and collected annually and is due at the time of initial and renewal vehicle registration.

Sec. 3. RCW 46.17.350 and 2014 c 30 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Before accepting an application for a vehicle registration, the department, county auditor or other agent, or subagent appointed by the director shall require the applicant, unless specifically exempt, to pay the following vehicle license fee by vehicle type:

VEHICLE TYPE	INITIAL FEE	RENEWAL FEE	DISTRIBUTED UNDER
(a) Auto stage, six seats or less	$ 30.00	$ 30.00	RCW 46.68.030
(b) Camper	$ 4.90	$ 3.50	RCW 46.68.030
(c) Commercial trailer	$ ((34.00)) 30.00	$ 30.00	RCW 46.68.035
(d) For hire vehicle, six seats or less	$ 30.00	$ 30.00	RCW 46.68.030
(e) Mobile home (if registered)	$ 30.00	$ 30.00	RCW 46.68.030
(f) Moped	$ 30.00	$ 30.00	RCW 46.68.030
(g) Motor home	$ 30.00	$ 30.00	RCW 46.68.030
(h) Motorcycle	$ 30.00	$ 30.00	RCW 46.68.030
(i) Off-road vehicle	$ 18.00	$ 18.00	RCW 46.68.045
(j) Passenger car	$ 30.00	$ 30.00	RCW 46.68.030
(k) Private use single-axle trailer	$ 15.00	$ 15.00	RCW 46.68.035
(l) Snowmobile	$ ((50.00)) 30.00	$ ((50.00)) 30.00	RCW 46.68.350
(m) Snowmobile, vintage	$ 12.00	$ 12.00	RCW 46.68.350
(n) Sport utility vehicle	$ 30.00	$ 30.00	RCW 46.68.030
(o) Tow truck	$ 30.00	$ 30.00	RCW 46.68.030
(p) Trailer, over 2000 pounds	$ 30.00	$ 30.00	RCW 46.68.030
(q) Travel trailer	$ 30.00	$ 30.00	RCW 46.68.030

(2) The vehicle license fee required in subsection (1) of this section is in addition to the filing fee required under RCW 46.17.005, and any other fee or tax required by law.

Sec. 4. RCW 46.17.355 and 2015 3rd sp.s. c 44 s 201 are each amended to read as follows:

BASE VEHICLE TAXES USING KELLEY BLUE BOOK VALUE

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 82.44 RCW to read as follows:

(1) BASE VEHICLE TAXES USING KELLEY BLUE BOOK VALUE. Any motor vehicle excise tax must be calculated in an honest and accurate way so the burden on vehicle owners is not artificially inflated. For the purpose of determining a vehicle tax, a taxing district imposing a vehicle tax must set a vehicle's taxable value at the vehicle's base model Kelley Blue book value. This ensures an honest and accurate calculation of the tax and, combined with the appeal process in RCW 82.44.065, ensures that vehicle owners are taxed on their vehicle's market value.

(2) For the purpose of determining a tax under this chapter, the value of a truck-type power or trailing unit, or motor vehicle, including a passenger vehicle, motorcycle, motor home, sport utility vehicle, or light duty truck is the base model Kelley Blue book value of the vehicle, excluding applicable federal excise taxes, state and local sales or use taxes, transportation or shipping costs, or preparatory or delivery costs.

Sec. 9. RCW 82.44.065 and 2010 c 161 s 912 each amended to read as follows:

If the department determines a value for a vehicle ~~((equivalent to a manufacturer's base suggested retail price or the value of a truck or trailer under RCW 82.44.035))~~ under section 8 of this act, any person who pays a state or locally imposed tax for that vehicle may appeal the valuation to the department under chapter 34.05 RCW. If the taxpayer is successful on appeal, the department shall refund the excess tax in the manner provided in RCW 82.44.120. Using Kelley Blue Book value ensures an honest and accurate calculation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. RCW 81.104.140 and 2015 3rd sp.s. c 44 s 318 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Agencies authorized to provide high capacity transportation service, including transit agencies and regional transit authorities, and regional transportation investment districts acting with the agreement of an agency, are hereby granted dedicated funding sources for such systems. These dedicated funding sources, as set forth in RCW 81.104.150, 81.104.160, 81.104.170, and 81.104.175, are authorized only for agencies located in (a) each county with a population of two hundred ten thousand or more and (b) each county with a population of from one hundred twenty-five thousand to less than two hundred ten thousand except for those counties that do not border a county with a population as described under (a) of this subsection. In any county with a population of one million or more or in any county having a population of four hundred thousand or more bordering a county with a population of one million or more, these funding sources may be imposed only by a regional transit authority or a regional transportation investment district. Regional transportation investment districts may, with the approval of the regional transit authority within its boundaries, impose the taxes authorized under this chapter, but only upon approval of the voters and to the extent that the maximum amount of taxes authorized under this chapter have not been imposed.

(2) Agencies planning to construct and operate a high capacity transportation system should also seek other funds, including federal, state, local, and private sector assistance.

(3) Funding sources should satisfy each of the following criteria to the greatest extent possible:

- (a) Acceptability;
- (b) Ease of administration;
- (c) Equity;
- (d) Implementation feasibility;
- (e) Revenue reliability; and
- (f) Revenue yield.

(4)(a) Agencies participating in regional high capacity transportation system development are authorized to levy and collect the following voter-approved local option funding sources:

- (i) Employer tax as provided in RCW 81.104.150, other than by regional transportation investment districts;
- (ii) ~~(Special motor vehicle excise tax as provided in RCW 81.104.160;~~
- (iii) Regular property tax as provided in 81.104.175; and
- ~~((iv))~~ (iii) Sales and use tax as provided in RCW 81.104.170.

(b) Revenues from these taxes may be used only to support those purposes prescribed in subsection (10) of this section. Before the date of an election authorizing an agency to impose any of the taxes enumerated in this section and authorized in RCW 81.104.150, 81.104.160, 81.104.170, and 81.104.175, the agency must comply with the process prescribed in RCW 81.104.100 (1) and (2) and 81.104.110. No construction on exclusive right-of-way may occur before the requirements of RCW 81.104.100(3) are met.

(5) Except for the regular property tax authorized in 81.104.175, the authorization in subsection (4) of this section may not adversely affect the funding authority of transit agencies not provided for in this chapter. Local option funds may be used to support implementation of interlocal agreements with respect to the establishment of regional high capacity transportation service. Except when a regional transit authority exists, local jurisdictions must retain control over moneys generated within their boundaries, although funds may be commingled with those generated in other areas for planning, construction, and operation of high capacity transportation systems as set forth in the agreements.

(6) Except for the regular property tax authorized in 81.104.175, agencies planning to construct and operate high capacity transportation systems may contract with the state for collection and transference of voter-approved local option revenue.

(7) Dedicated high capacity transportation funding sources authorized in RCW 81.104.150, 81.104.160, 81.104.170, and 81.104.175 are subject to voter approval by a simple majority. A single ballot proposition may seek approval for one or more of the authorized taxing sources. The ballot title must reference the document identified in subsection (8) of this section.

(8) Agencies must provide to the registered voters in the area a document describing the systems plan and the financing plan set forth in RCW 81.104.100. It must also describe the relationship of the system to regional issues such as development density at station locations and activity centers, and the interrelationship of the system to adopted land use and transportation demand management goals within the region. This document must be provided to the voters at least twenty days prior to the date of the election.

(9) For any election in which voter approval is sought for a high capacity transportation system plan and financing plan pursuant to RCW 81.104.040, a local voter's pamphlet must be produced as provided in chapter 29A.32 RCW.

(10)(a) Agencies providing high capacity transportation service must retain responsibility for revenue encumbrance, disbursement, and bonding. Funds may be used for any purpose relating to planning, construction, and operation of high capacity transportation systems and commuter rail systems, personal rapid transit, busways, bus sets, and entrained and linked buses.

(b) A regional transit authority that ~~((imposes a motor vehicle excise tax after the effective date of this section,))~~ imposes a property tax~~((;))~~ or increases a sales and use tax to more than nine-tenths of one percent must undertake a process in which the authority's board formally considers inclusion of the name, Scott White, in the naming convention associated with either the University of Washington or Roosevelt stations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) RCW 82.44.035 (Valuation of vehicles) and 2010 c 161 s 910 & 2006 c 318 s 1; and

(2) RCW 81.104.160 (Motor vehicle excise tax for regional transit authorities---Sales and use tax on car rentals---Former motor vehicle excise tax repealed) and 2015 3rd sp.s. c 44 s 319, 2010 c 161 s 903, 2009 c 280 s 4, 2003 c 1 s 6 (Initiative Measure No. 776, approved November 5, 2002), & 1998 c 321 s 35 (Referendum Bill No. 49, approved November 3, 1998).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 81.112 RCW to read as follows:

In order to effectuate the policies, purposes, and intent of this act and to ensure that the motor vehicle excise taxes repealed by this act are no longer imposed or collected, an authority that imposes a motor vehicle excise tax under RCW 81.104.160 must fully retire, defease, or refinance any outstanding bonds issued under this chapter if:

(1) Any revenue collected prior to the effective date of this section from the motor vehicle excise tax imposed under RCW 81.104.160 has been pledged to such bonds; and

(2) The bonds, by virtue of the terms of the bond contract, covenants, or similar terms, may be retired or defeased early or refinanced.

Sec. 13. RCW 81.104.160 and 2015 3rd sp.s. c 44 s 319 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Regional transit authorities that include a county with a population of more than one million five hundred thousand may submit an authorizing proposition to the voters, and if approved, may levy and collect an excise tax, at a rate approved by the voters, but not exceeding ((eight-tenths)) two-tenths of one percent on the value, under chapter 82.44 RCW, of every motor vehicle owned by a resident of the taxing district, solely for the purpose of providing high capacity transportation service. The maximum tax rate under this subsection does not include a motor vehicle excise tax approved before the effective date of this section if the tax will terminate on the date bond debt to which the tax is pledged is repaid. This tax does not apply to vehicles licensed under RCW 46.16A.455 except vehicles with an unladen weight of six thousand pounds or less, RCW 46.16A.425 or 46.17.335(2). Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection or chapter 82.44 RCW, a motor vehicle excise tax imposed by a regional transit authority before or after the effective date of this section must comply with chapter 82.44 RCW as it existed on January 1, 1996, until December 31st of the year in which the regional transit authority repays bond debt to which a motor vehicle excise tax was pledged before the effective date of this section. Motor vehicle taxes collected by regional transit authorities after December 31st of the year in which a regional transit authority repays bond debt to which a motor vehicle excise tax was pledged before the effective date of this section must comply with chapter 82.44 RCW as it existed on the date the tax was approved by voters.

(2) An agency and high capacity transportation corridor area may impose a sales and use tax solely for the purpose of providing high capacity transportation service, in addition to the tax authorized by RCW 82.14.030, upon retail car rentals within the applicable jurisdiction that are taxable by the state under chapters 82.08 and 82.12 RCW. The rate of tax may not exceed 2.172 percent. The rate of tax imposed under this subsection must bear the same ratio of the 2.172 percent authorized that the rate imposed under subsection (1) of this section bears to the rate authorized under subsection (1) of this section. The base of the tax is the selling price in the case of a sales tax or the rental value of the vehicle used in the case of a use tax.

(3) Any motor vehicle excise tax previously imposed under the provisions of RCW 81.104.160(1) shall be repealed, terminated, and expire on December 5, 2002, except for a motor vehicle excise tax for which revenues have been contractually pledged to repay a bonded debt issued before December 5, 2002, as determined by Pierce County et al. v. State, 159 Wn.2d 16, 148 P.3d 1002 (2006). In the case of bonds that were previously issued, the motor vehicle excise tax must comply with chapter 82.44 RCW as it existed on January 1, 1996.

(4) If a regional transit authority imposes the tax authorized under subsection (1) of this section, the authority may not receive any state grant funds provided in an omnibus transportation appropriations act except transit coordination grants created in chapter 11, Laws of 2015 3rd sp. sess.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. CONSTRUCTION CLAUSE. The provisions of this act are to be liberally construed to effectuate the intent, policies, and purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. SEVERABILITY CLAUSE. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. EFFECTIVE DATE. (1) Sections 10 and 11 of this act take effect on the date that the regional transit authority complies with section 12 of this act and retires, defeases, or refinances its outstanding bonds.

(2) Section 13 takes effect April 1, 2020, if sections 10 and 11 of this act have not taken effect by March 31, 2020.

(3) The regional transit authority must provide written notice of the effective dates of sections 10, 11, and 13 of this act to affected parties, the chief clerk of the house of representatives, the secretary of the senate, the office of the code reviser, and others as deemed appropriate by the regional transit authority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. TITLE. This act is known and may be cited as "Bring Back Our $30 Car Tabs."

Celebrate women of Washington

Washington has been Ahead of the Curve since it first granted women suffrage (the right to vote) in 1883. Later revoked, in 1910 our state became the fifth to include women's suffrage in its constitution — a decade ahead of the nation.

Legacy Washington is gearing up for the 2020 centennial of women's suffrage in the United States by highlighting the pioneering spirit of some larger-than-life women and little-known stories with big impacts on our state, the nation, and beyond.

Washington women keep blazing trails in fields from science to bridge building.

Visit the Ahead of the Curve exhibit at the Washington State Capitol in Olympia, or read in-depth profiles of all the subjects online.
