

Community Development - Dungeness Reservoir 30401.311.

Mission Statement

Clallam County Community Development will facilitate the construction and management of an 88 acre reservoir to collect and store Dungeness River water and stormwater to provide a sustainable irrigation supply for the irrigators east of the Dungeness River, water supply for the aquifer recharge, and restore habitat for ESA listed Salmon.

Function

- Provide organization development, administration, management, and support to facilitate construction of the reservoir and park.
- Coordinate and meet with partners such as the City of Sequim, Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe,
- Seek and obtain funding to complete the project.
- Assist with public outreach concerning the reservoir and park.

Trends/Events

There is significant support for this reservoir and park from our partners and the Public. Washington Department of Natural Resources is a willing seller of two parcels (total of 396 acres) for the reservoir and park.

Goals

- Capture high flows and store it in the reservoir for late summer mainstream flow restoration,
- Restore 20 - 30 cfs of Dungeness River flows by substituting irrigation water supply (typically
- Capture floodwater that can damage infrastructure in the City of Sequim and Clallam County.
- Create a new county park.
- Provide climate resiliency for people, farms, and fish in the Dungeness Valley.
