Mission Statement

The mission of the Peninsula Dispute Resolution Center is to promote and provide for the peaceful resolution of conflict through modeling, facilitating and teaching mediation in Jefferson and Clallam counties.

Function

Dispute Resolution Center (PDRC) is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization that offers conflicts resolution services to Clallam County Superior and District Courts providing parties with a proven mediation process to negotiate successfully.

Superior Court: PDRC assists families with mandatory parenting plans and dissolution paperwork, as well as guides clients in developing new communication skills to reduce or eliminate future need for court services. PDRC's services are based on a sliding fee scale; no one is turned away because of the inability to pay. Many of PDRC's clients are low income families.

District Court: PDRC mediates Small Claims and offers an opportunity for parties to come to a win-win on their initial court date before a trial takes place. This services saves on court staff time and costs. The court provides PDRC surcharge funds based on filing fees.

Trends/Events

To remain an accessible dispute resolution community center that fulfills its mission and values, staying relevant during pandemic conditions became priority. PDRC volunteer mediators are trained to provide on-line mediations for all types of cases, including small claims.

Goals

1. Increase conflict resolution skills within the community by providing training and educational opportunities for all its citizens.
2. Continue to provide a certification process for volunteer mediators who serve PDRC.
3. Provide a professional, neutral and safe environment for people to resolve their disputes in-person and on-line.
4. Continue to seek and secure on-going funding and grants to support the services PDRC offers in the community.
