

Superior Court - Courthouse Facilitator 12911.861.

Mission Statement

To provide and improve access to justice services to pro se Clallam County court participants. The Court Facilitator offers services to all incomes levels and charges a $35.00 appointment fee.

Function

The Court Facilitator is funded partially through the Family and Juvenile Court Improvement Program Grant and Clallam County Pro Bono Lawyers through pass-through surcharge funds based on filing fees. The Court Facilitator reviews Family Law court forms completed by Pro Se parties, explains court procedures and rules, computes child support, and sells Family Court forms to Pro Se parties. The Court Facilitator also assists in the court in helping families in Dependency cases with filing Family Law cases which aids in dismissal of Dependency cases.

Trends/Events

Dependency Filings: This year the court has experienced an increase of 22-25% in Dependency case filings. This is a pretty significant spike in filings from last year and require more court calendar time, judicial time, attorney participation and processing of paperwork needed by the parties. On average the Court Facilitator spends approximately 30-35 hours per month on these case filings.

Domestic Relations Filings: The court has seen an increase of 11-13% in domestic relations filings since the beginning of this year; i.e., Parenting Plans, Non-Custody cases and Divorces. Each of these cases requires packets of paperwork, guidance and assistance from the Court Facilitator. Because of the increase in Domestic Relations filings and Dependency filings, the Court Facilitator has been scheduling appointments to meet with individuals for up to two weeks in advance.

Goals
