

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS CONCERNING EMANCIPATION

1. What does is mean if I am emancipated?

If a Court declares a minor to be emancipated, it means that a minor has the right to:

- a. Sue or be sued in his or her own name.
- b. Work and earn a living subject only to the health and safety regulations which are under the age of majority.
- c. Retain his or her own earnings from employment.
- d. Establish a separate residence or domicile.
- e. Enter into nonvoidable contracts.
- f. Act autonomously as an adult in all business relationships including property transactions.
- g. Give informed consent to obtain health care services.

The parents of the minor no longer have to pay child support, nor are they required to be financially responsible for the minor.

Even if you are emancipated, if you are less than 18 years of age, you will still be subject to the criminal laws of juveniles unless the Court determines that you should be treated as an adult. Emancipated minors cannot vote and they must abide by the alcohol and tobacco regulations which require no consumption until age 21.

2. Who can apply for emancipation?

A minor must be 16 or 17 years of age and a resident of the State of Washington to apply.

3. Where does one apply for emancipation?

Forms can be obtained from the Clallam County Clerk's Office which is located on the second floor of the Clallam County Courthouse. The forms are to be filed at the Clerk's office when completed.

4. What is the cost of filing an Emancipation Petition?

The filing fee is $50.00 and the petition requires that you attach a certified copy of your birth certificate which normally costs $11.00 if you were born in the State of Washington. In most cases, the Judge will appoint a Guardian Ad Litem to investigate the petition. The forms request that you provide copies of school records, criminal history and other information. There may be a fee charged by other agencies to obtain that information.

5. What is the procedure after I file a petition?

After a petition is filed, the Court will decide whether or not to appoint a Guardian Ad Litem. Also, the Court or Clerk will set a hearing date for the petition at 9:00 A.M., Family Court, Courtroom 3. It will be necessary for the minor to serve his or her parents/guardians with a notice of the petition and hearing and a response form, at least 15 days prior to the hearing.

6. What standards do the Courts use in evaluating Emancipation Petitions?

According to State law, the Court shall grant the petition only if it is proved by clear and convincing evidence that:

- a. The minor is 16 years of age or older and a resident of the State of Washington;
- b. The minor has the ability to manage his or her financial affairs;
- c. The minor has the ability to manage his or her personal, social, educational and other nonfinancial affairs.

Clear and convincing evidence is a high standard and requires the minor to demonstrate that he or she is ready to assume the duties and responsibilities of adulthood. Persons, who apply simply because their parents no longer wish to be responsible for them, or pay child support, will not qualify for emancipation. You must demonstrate to the Court that you have a stable residential arrangement, sufficient income to meet your needs and reasonable plans for your future or you will not qualify. Persons who have an extensive criminal history will not qualify for emancipation.

 - (c) the petitioner has the ability to manage his or her financial affairs; and

3.4 The petitioner shall not be considered an adult for:

- (a) The purposes of the adult criminal laws of the state unless the decline of jurisdiction procedures contained in RCW 13.40.110 are used;
- (b) The criminal laws of the state when the emancipated minor is a victim and the age of the victim is an element of the offense; or
- (c) Those specific constitutional and statutory age requirements regarding voting, use of alcoholic beverages, and other health and safety regulations relevant to the minor because of the minor's age.
