SUMMARY PROJECT DESCRIPTION:
 The Marine Resources Committees (MRCs) provide the foundation for scientifically sound, locally supported marine conservation measures needed to address marine ecosystem issues within a county. In 1998, Congress authorized the creation of MRCs in the northern Puget Sound counties to provide local, broad-based, grassroots level input to the Northwest Straits Commission. In 2007, the Washington State Legislature passed Substitute House Bill 2049 which authorized MRCs in Pacific, Grays Harbor, and Wahkiakum counties. Clallam and Jefferson counties may each establish a new coastal MRC in addition to existing Puget Sound MRCs. The Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife (WDFW) will coordinate this effort to establish MRCs on the outer coast. Each coastal MRC will work with state, federal, local, and tribal governments to develop a collaborative process to address ocean policy issues. Washington's "Ocean Action Plan" (December 2006) will serve as a guide for state and local ocean policy and activities.

The purpose of this contract is to build administrative capacity for Clallam County so that it can collaborate with tribal governments, citizens, stakeholders, and WDFW staff to establish a coastal Clallam County MRC that will provide guidance on ocean issues and implement priority ocean restoration and conservation actions.

PROJECT STATEMENT OF WORK:
Activities:
 Clallam County will identify a staff person or contractor or a hired coordinator to facilitate the organization of a new MRC and the integration of the recommendations identified in Washington's "Ocean Action Plan" (December 2006) into the MRC's work. Clallam County staff will cooperate with WDFW staff and others to reach out to local citizens through public and stakeholder meetings and other means in order to invite them to participate in the new Marine Resources Committee as committee members, project sponsors, and/or project volunteers. Clallam County staff will coordinate and work with Jefferson County in particular, and where applicable, other entities in coastal counties working to develop MRCs.

Deliverables:

1. The name and contact information of a coordinator to support the administration and work of the MRC and serve as a liaison among other MRCs, Clallam County, and the WDFW. (Due by January 31st, 2009)
2. A list of the local citizens who have agreed to participate as members of the MRC. (Due by May 31st, 2009)
3. A report that describes the status of the development of an MRC in Clallam County and includes details of future opportunities, lessons learned, and potential roadblocks. (Due by May 31st, 2009)
4. A draft work plan identifying ways to implement the recommendations in Washington's "Ocean Action Plan" (December 2006) through the establishment and work of a MRC. The work plan should identify "early action" projects that could be implemented before July of 2009. (Due by June 30, 2009)
5. A draft county ordinance or resolution to establish a MRC in Clallam County. (Due by June 30, 2009).
