

RULES OF CONDUCT

While Drug Court sessions are to a large degree informal, there are certain basic rules of conduct that the Drug Court Team insists be followed:

1. No food or drink other than water in the courtroom.
2. No gum in the courtroom.
3. Be attentive to what is happening in Court.
4. No disrespectful words or behavior to the Drug Court Team or to any of the Drug Court participants.
5. No leaving the courtroom except for bathroom use (only once per session allowed).
6. No reading material or homework shall be done in Court.
7. Clothing must be appropriate for Court.
8. Self-help meeting slips must be filled out by conclusion of the meeting, not at Court.
9. Drug Court starts at 4:00 P.M. and each participant is expected to stay for the entire session.

I agree to abide by the above rules:
