What should you do with your expired or unwanted medicines?

Medicines help treat diseases, manage chronic conditions, and improve health and well-being for millions of Americans. It's vitally important that patients take their medicine as prescribed by their health care provider and as indicated on the label or packaging. It's also important to be sure to store medications securely to prevent accidental ingestion or misuse by others in your household, especially children.

If you have expired or unwanted medication, proper disposal is easy. To protect your privacy, consumers are reminded to remove all personally identifiable information on prescription labels or materials before using any of the following disposal options.
