13	Often people in this community are not okay with people with disabilities participating in evebts/sports ect. Rarely are they welcomed, often talked bad about (such as parents asking why they are even aloud to sign up) so it would be nice for the community to be trained in inclusion and the benefits of. Trainings/programs offered in bigger areas it would be nice to allow people from small areas to participate, maybe by online means. Often trainings are held during work hours or right at 4 making it where if you work you cannot participate.	10/8/2020 8:34 PM
