#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Supported employment for autistic people	3/10/2021 8:31 AM
2	coloring and art classes that are affordable.	10/26/2020 8:23 PM
3	Everything. FAPE. Easier access to transportation to get to dentist in P.A. or even a dentist in town that accepts Medicaid. Trained school staff for special needs. My child's been 'suspended' since September 2019 dueto lack of proper trained staff. Respite OUTSIDE of my home would be amazing. A behavior therapist comes out rarely from port townsend. The school had no in person speech therapist until lady month. I could go on. Its terrible	10/12/2020 12:42 PM
4	There does not seem to be anything aimed at autistic adults who are independent.	10/12/2020 12:43 AM
5	Often people in this community are not okay with people with disabilities participating in evebts/sports ect. Rarely are they welcomed, often talked bad about (such as parents asking why they are even aloud to sign up) so it would be nice for the community to be trained in inclusion and the benefits of. Trainings/programs offered in bigger areas it would be nice to allow people from small areas to participate, maybe by online means. Often trainings are held during work hours or right at 4 making it where if you work you cannot participate.	10/8/2020 8:34 PM
6	More autism specific supports and more social groups for adults with developmental disabilities especially for those who work full time.	10/2/2020 1:42 PM
