

Lake Ozette Sockeye Salmon Spawning Videos, Fall 2013

Shot by Streamkeeper volunteer Nancy Messmer

Here are several short videos of the Sockeye returning to Umbrella Creek, taken from the Hoko-Ozette Bridge.

They are posted on YouTube. The web addresses are posted below. If you start with one, you will see all of them.

Click on my name....Nancy Messmer...and they will be posted in order.

Quality varies.

I am learning about sockeye each day I watch them. Hope you enjoy these images too.
